POOR WOMEN OF LONDON HIRED BY MILITANT SUFFRAGETTES TO CARRY ON THE ARSON OUTRAGES

Police Court Evidence Proof of Intention to Burn New College Chapel at Hampstead; Magistrate Scores Persons Responsible for Women's Employment

Hyde Park Meetings Broken Up by Crowds; Women Are Saved From Assault by the Strong Police Guard Provided

London, May 19.—There have been rumors, unbelieved in official quarters for some time past that militant suffragettes throughout London under the Women's Political body had planned to hire women not in sympathy with the suffrage militant movement, but in need of money to do the work carried out by the arson squads of the organization, and that the rumors were not groundless is based on the fact of an arrest at Hampstead yesterday morning of a young woman of the poorer class who has given the police her name as Nellie Robinson, and has admitted having hired her services to the militants for the purposes of committing the crime of arson on their behalf. She was arrested by police outside the famous New College chapel at Hampstead.

That the intention of the arson-militants was to set the church on fire was told to the police who arrested her by the woman. Her statement in brief is that she had been engaged to do the actual work of lighting the fire which was planned would destroy the famous building. When arrested she was, according to her statement, waiting the arrival of two members of the militant brigade, both women, who were to be present and witness that she carried out her undertaking. She said she was to follow the directions which the women she awaited would give her.

The woman became frightened when arrested and rather than evade the inquiries of the police and accept the possible prison outcome she divulged the whole plot. She was presented to the police court and remanded. The police magistrate before whom the woman was charged said that she seemed to be in course of training as professional petroleum incendiary under miscreants who are worse than herself. The woman is a domestic servant.

Hyde Park was the scene of similar rowdyism yesterday to that which has prevailed on previous occasions when members of the suffrage league held meetings to urge their cause for votes for women. The disorder yesterday, however, was not so great as on several previous occasions, as the police guard had been prepared and a strong force prevented actions of great violence. The orators who espoused the cause found it impossible to make themselves heard, because of the din caused by the interjections and "boo-hoos" of the mob, which numbered thousands.

Recognizing that their efforts to make themselves heard, or to win adherents to their cause yesterday the speakers decided to stop the proceedings for the day. On attempting to depart from their meeting places they found their troubles had but commenced and severe handling would have followed had it not been for the strong police protection accorded by the authorities. At meetings held at Hampstead and other suburbs the orators received similar treatment; at no place in the suburbs or in the city were they able to get a hearing beyond their opening words.

The first arrest under the so-called "cat and mouse" bill was made to-day when Annie Bell, a hunger striker, was taken into custody at Brighton.

She was sentenced in April to three weeks' imprisonment for carrying a pistol, but was released on account of ill-health, occasioned by abstaining from food.

SCHWAB TELLS OF TALK WITH MORGAN

Consolidation of Steel Industry Being Inquired Into at New York

New York, May 19. — Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation and first president of the United States Steel Corporation, took the stand to-day as a witness for the defence in the government suit to dissolve the latter corporation. Mr. Schwab described the famous dinner given to him in 1899 by prominent financiers at which Schwab made a plea for consolidation in the steel industry on the ground of economy. Mr. Schwab sat next to J. P. Morgan at the dinner, and to-day he described the conversation between them.

Mr. Schwab said he explained to Mr. Morgan that a combination of certain steel corporations would bring about a completely integrated organization, which would have the advantages of the possession of raw materials, transportation and plants which would enable it to conduct the business from the mining of ore and coal right through to the manufacture and sale of every finished product.

"I also pointed out to him," he said, "that only by combination could export business be made profitable. Probably more than anything else I impressed upon him the advantages of combining for the sake of establishing an export trade."

SWAM THROUGH SURF TO SAVE FISHERMEN

San Francisco, May 19.—Charles Mangels and Ralph Welding, members of a life-saving crew, swam through a hundred yards of eddying frigid surf last night to save six fishermen who had been trapped by a rising tide on Mussel rock. The lifesavers were dragged ashore. Welding carried one of them, a one-armed man, ashore on his back. The six had spent five hours on the rock when their plight was discovered by someone who summoned the lifesavers.

WANT DIAZ TO RETURN

Corrunna, Spain, May 19.—A Mexican delegation arrived here to-day on board the steamer Ipiranga, for the purpose of trying to persuade General Porfirio Diaz, the former Mexican president, to return to Mexico and undertake the government of the country.

MAN BADLY INJURED WHEN CAR STRIKES

Both Legs, Arm, Ribs and Collarbone Broken; Wacht in Hospital

New Westminster, May 19.—Struck by an automobile while alighting from a car in East Burnaby Saturday evening, William Wacht, a middle-aged man residing on Seventeenth avenue, East Burnaby, had both legs broken, his right arm, six ribs and his collarbone fractured, and is now in a precarious condition at the Royal Columbian hospital here. George Leas, of East Burnaby, whose automobile it was that struck Wacht, reported the matter to the police. Wacht was alighting from a car at the corner of Seventeenth avenue about 9.45 o'clock, and did not see the approaching automobile. The motor was so badly damaged by the collision that it had to be taken to the repair shop. Wacht was conveyed to his home, where, after being attended to by Dr. McEwan, he was ordered to be conveyed to the hospital.

DAVID STARR JORDAN IS NOW CHANCELLOR

Stanford University, Cal., May 19.—David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University, resigned his position to-day to accept the office of chancellor which will be created by the board of trustees next Friday for his especial benefit. The announcement was made by Dr. Jordan to the student body in the course of an address he delivered to-day during the commencement exercises, on "The Conquest of Europe by America."

WIFE DRAGS HUSBAND FROM DEATH IN FLAMES

Owen Sound, Ont., May 19.—But for the heroic action of his wife, who dashed into a burning building and dragged him out from under a blazing stairway, Samuel Greenway, of Holland Centre, would not be alive. Greenway was coming down the blazing stairs when they broke, throwing him into the heart of the fire. His wife dashed into the flames and literally dragged him from death. The courageous wife was unhurt.

NATIONS WATCH LAND BILL DISPUTE

Eyes of World Capitals Centered on California

ALIEN LAND BILL IS WORLD QUESTION

Sir Valentine Chirol Sees More Danger in Situation Than Before

IS LARGE QUESTION FOR WHITE RACES

Quicker California Road to Affluence Spurs on Ambitious Asiatics

TIMES AND MAIL ON PRESENT SITUATION

London, May 19.—The Times prints a three-column article by Valentine Chirol, the ex-foreign editor of the paper, dealing with the dispute between the United States and Japan. The writer analyses the grounds on which Japan claims equality of treatment with western nations, and expresses the belief that the situation created thereby is more dangerous than it was on any previous occasion.

The Times, commenting editorially on this statement, says: "The ultimate point in the dispute does not affect America alone, but is essentially a world question. There should be plenty of room for the surplus millions of Japan and China in the undeveloped Asiatic territories for many decades to come.

"But California offers a quicker pathway to affluence for the ambitious Asiatics: therefore the fears of the Californians, thought to be exaggerated and premature, are not entirely groundless, and no useful purpose will be served by blind condemnation of the tendencies of public opinion in the western states.

"Whatever may be the issue of the present dispute, it is a question of magnitude for the white races in the future. Until the situation becomes more strained we prefer to believe that some middle course of settlement will be found.

"While Japan is fully warranted in standing upon her treaty rights, she will do well to remember that a claim to enter a neighbor's garden is the kind of a claim that connot be pressed with unrestricted indignation, however strong its documentary support may be."

The Daily Mail in an editorial headed: "Misplaced Idealism," says: "When Secretary Bryan loudly proclaimed that there should be no war during his tenure of office, he forgot California and forgot Japan. It is not probable that Japan will proceed to extremes; her statesmen are too wise to fight on an issue where western opinion would not support them, while her strength is not equal to a struggle with the United States.

"Yet it would be well for Mr. Bryan to remember that he who declares that nothing will force him to fight is inviting his opponents to drive him into a position where it would be difficult for him to keep the peace."

OTTAWA ASKING FOR PURE WATER SUPPLY

Hon. W. T. White Introduces Resolution for Renewal of Bank Charters

Ottawa, Ont., May 19.—In the Commons this morning the bill authorizing the city of Ottawa to secure a supply of pure water from the Gatineau hills in Quebec province was put through the committee stage and given a third reading without comment. Hon. W. T. White introduced a resolution on which a bill is founded renewing the charters of the city and district Bank of Montreal, and Caisse Deconomie, of Quebec, two savings banks that do not come under the operation of the general bank act. Replying to questions by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. White said that these banks did not have as much power as other banks, and do not issue note circulation, but the audit provisions of the general bank act now before the House would be applied to them.

JOHNSON PUTS HIS SIGNATURE TO BILL

Sacramento, Cal., May 19.—Governor Johnson to-day signed the alien land bill, against which Japan protests and which the California legislature passed by an overwhelming majority over the remonstrances of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. The act will go into effect 90 days from date or on August 17.

Governor Johnson made the following statement: "I repeat what I have before said, 'that California for the first time in its history has anti-alien law. Any man who wishes another kind of law may consistently invoke the initiative. No man who really wishes an anti-alien law will sign a referendum as to this law.

"'If another law is sought it may be presented by means of the initiative and in the meantime the present law will be in operation. To tie up the present law means no law until November 1914.'"

BRYAN DENUNCIATES WAR PROFIT SCARES

Referendum Proposal in California Not Expected to Suit Japan

Delay of Year and Half Would Be Greeted With Impatience in Orient

Washington, D. C., May 19.—Tension over the Japanese situation continues to excite attention in official and diplomatic quarters, but there were no specific developments to-day at the White House, the state department or the Japanese embassy.

Vigorous denunciations of a subsidized patriotism which seeks to create war because of the profits in armor plate and battleships, and of the sensational and mercenary newspapers, which prefer big scareheads to the truth, marked an address by Secretary Bryan yesterday of The Hague anniversary meeting, held under the auspices of the Washington Peace Society.

The movement in California to submit the anti-alien act to a referendum is understood to be viewed by the administration as affording further opportunity for diplomatic adjustment of the issues. It has been assumed that because of apparently overwhelming sentiment in California in favor of Japanese exclusion from land-owning, there might be difficulty in securing the 20,000 signatures necessary to invoke the referendum. Now, however, that the exclusion element itself, or rather its most radical component—the Asiatic Exclusion League—has taken up the movement, the probability of its success has greatly increased, in the official judgment.

The Japanese government is not expected to approve that method of dealing with its protest, though probably it will be difficult for the Tokio foreign office to find technical grounds for objection to the method in which California is attempting to legislate. Washington officials feel that Japan regards the present as the best time to settle the question permanently, and that it will contemplate with impatience a delay of a least a year and a half, even though in the interim the proposed law would apply to the Japanese in California.

PEOPLE GRUMBLING AT LATE DELIVERY OF MAIL

London, May 19.—There is considerable grumbling here to-day over the delivery of the latest Canadian mail. People are wondering if the new Canadian service is responsible for letters from Ottawa, Toronto, etc., dated May 6, and only received this morning. The same post also brings letters dated May 9. Another instance of delay is that Toronto newspapers mailed on the ninth are being delivered before the letters dated the sixth.

KANSAS FEARED TORNADO.

Kansas City, Mo., May 19.—A heavy pall of darkness that hung over Kansas City for two hours this morning sent hundreds of citizens scurrying into their cellars in fear of a tornado, resulted in a series of minor traffic accidents, and culminated in a terrific thunderstorm. Reports from nearby towns say the same conditions prevailed, but no serious damage was reported from any point.

BELIEVE BILL BLOW TO NATIONAL PRIDE

Tokio Papers Praise Zeal of President Wilson to Preserve Friendship

JAPAN GOVERNMENT IS URGED TO BE FIRM

Count Okuma Says Position Repetition of Japan's Attitude Fifty Years Ago

CALIFORNIA WILL SEE MATTER DIFFERENTLY

Tokio, May 19.—Faith in the people of the United States to see justice done the Japanese is the dominating note in the discussion of the California alien ownership legislation. War talk is denounced as ridiculous and only calculated to embarrass the two governments which are laboring for a peaceful settlement by diplomacy.

It is conceded, however, that the failure on the part of the United States to respond to the Japanese appeal for a discontinuance of the alleged discrimination would be liable to lead to some estrangement. The Japanese public is convinced that the land bill is a racial and not an economic measure and hence a blow to national pride, and the people feel that the world must be taught the necessity of equal treatment for the whites and non-whites.

The Tokio newspapers are loud in their praise of President Wilson's zeal in his endeavors to preserve the traditional friendship and they recognize the difficulties which confront the president of the United States in the confusing conflict between state and federal rights.

The Nichi Nichi is of the opinion that the question as to whether the Washington government can procure for Japanese equal rights depends upon the strength of Japanese diplomacy, and the paper urges the government to take a firm attitude.

A joint celebration of the Japanese and United States peace societies yesterday was attended by 1,000 Japanese. Speeches were made by Count Okuma, former minister of foreign affairs, Baron Yoshiro Sakatani, mayor of Tokio, and Tsunejiro Moyakoa, who was counsellor of the Japanese embassy in Washington in 1908. All the speakers endeavored to clarify the situation and decried jingoism.

Count Okuma was loudly applauded when he compared the attitude of the California legislators with the anti-foreign movement in Japan half a century ago which he looked upon as an abased race prejudice. "We despised the foreigners," he said, "because they looked different; we did not consider them human beings. Japan finally saw the falsity of its position and became an admirer of everything western. The same causes underlie the California question, but like the Japanese, the Californians will see the folly of their position and truth and justice will triumph.

"At some future day the Californians will laugh at their fathers and grandfathers for driving off the Japanese, just as we laugh at the anti-foreign absurdities of the Samurai."

TWO MONTHS' STRIKE ENDED AT PATERSON

Police Guard Men From Industrial Workers of World Pickets

Paterson, N. J., May 19.—Through a lane of police two blocks long, twenty hands formerly employed by the silk mill of Arthur Price & Company went back to work to-day after a strike of more than two months. Hundreds of pickets of the I. W. W. sought to prevent their return, but the police guard was too effective. There was a lively scrimmage and sixty pickets were arrested.

The Price mill is a comparatively small one, employing normally thirty hands. The return of its strikers, with demands unsatisfied, is heralded by the manufacturers as meaning the end of the strike. Leaders of the I. W. W., on the other hand, maintain that the fight will go on unabated and that few others will yield.

FOUR WOMEN HEAD LANDSEEKERS WHO APPLY AT WESTMINSTER SEVEN HUNDRED STAND IN LINE

Bona-fide Settlers in Greater Numbers Than Choice Homestead Blocks; First Two Hundred to Secure Best of Fraser Valley Dominion Lands

Mrs. John Holt First to Pass Through; No Orientals Among Applicants; Precautions Taken Against Dummying

New Westminster, B. C., May 19.—Up to noon to-day about two hundred out of seven hundred landseekers had been given tickets by Dominion Land Agent Magee, in the rear of the New Westminster post office, and were thereby assured of the chance to obtain a 40-acre homestead under the homesteading laws of the Dominion in the Fraser valley. In spite of the fact that there were so many applicants, and, comparatively speaking, so few homesteads, the proceedings were carried out without any trouble. Anticipating possible disorder a special squad of police had been provided to keep the line in order, but there was no trouble.

It was made clear to the applicants Saturday and Sunday that no one would be allowed to line up before 8 o'clock this morning, one hour before the opening of the land office. At 8 o'clock a scramble took place among the first hundred to reach the spot outside the post office door. This was soon over and the line waited four and five deep along the iron fence which surrounds the back of the lot on which the post office stands. At the head were four women. Before 9 o'clock a table and several books were brought out from the land office and placed on the walk leading through the lawn at the rear of the lot. One by one the police at the head of the line let the applicants through. At the table each signed a register and received a ticket with a number on it.

As soon as the first few numbers had been given out, Land Agent Magee left the table in charge of G. W. Martin, inspector of Dominion lands for Alberta and British Columbia, and while he continued to give out the tickets the land agent received the applicants and registered their claims according to the numbers they held. The first four were women who had been placed at the head of the line by courtesy of the men applicants. Mrs. John Holt, of Sapperton, New Westminster, was first to go through the gate. She said he had a husband and three children. They had only been in Canada from England seven months. The second was Mrs. J. M. Popplepon, 111½ Esqlanade west, North Vancouver. The third was Mrs. William T. Beasley, of Fifteenth avenue, East Burnaby. Her husband is a plasterer and they have seven children, the oldest 14 years and the youngest six weeks old. Mrs. T. Hinchcliffe, of Vancouver, was the fourth. None of these women were widows. They had to go back and bring their husbands before they could have the necessary papers drawn up in the land office.

The first man to register was Robert Wincrip, city poundkeeper here. No Japanese or Chinese applied. Toward the end of the line were some young unmarried women, including two negresses.

In order to prevent speculators obtaining tickets each applicant had to sign a register and endorse his ticket. Later, when applying for his settlement papers his signature was required again and contrasted with that in the register. No mere "place holders" were found in the line. The police kept a vigilant lookout for persons attempting to dispose of their chances to late comers.

"This is a good-sized rush compared to the prairie land rushes," said Inspector Martin. "Evidently there are plenty of bona fide settlers offering for British Columbia lands. I think the way the crowd was handled deserves praise. It is hard sometimes to know how to deal with a situation such as this is where there are more applicants than lots. I sometimes think the lottery system might after all be the fairer way, but that is against our regulations. On the whole nothing could be fairer than this."

As a matter of fact there are more than two hundred homesteads, as given out, and it is likely that all of the applicants will have a chance to locate land. Only two hundred, however, are designated as choice. Those whose numbers are above the two hundred or who are not on hand when their numbers are called will have the chance of locating further into the interior of the district.

LINEMEN ATTACKED BY STRIKE PICKETS

Exchange Stoned, Windows Broken, Man Beaten and Another Shot at Oswego

Portland, Ore., May 19.—Home telephone linemen, going to Oswego, ten miles south of Portland, to-day were followed by a crowd of strike pickets and attacked when reaching Oswego. Pickets drove the linemen into a local exchange and the exchange was stoned, windows broken and the building otherwise disfigured.

The attack was then made on some other linemen belonging to the home working force, and one man was badly beaten when one of the strikers was shot in the leg with an automatic revolver. Sheriff Mass, of Oregon City, is now at the scene and Sheriff Word, of Portland, with four deputies, is on the way to join him.

NINE MONTHS FOR SMUGGLING OPIUM

Portland, Ore., May 19.—J. A. Ralston, an aged man who was arrested in this city with Marian Bergman and Charlie Louis with a large quantity of opium in his possession which he had brought here from Seattle, pleaded guilty to-day in the United States district court and was sentenced to nine months in the county jail. United States Attorney Johnson recommended leniency because of the defendant's advanced age and because it appeared that he was a tool of other persons, and because he had been of service to the government in the smuggling cases recently tried in Seattle.

ARCHBISHOP CASEY IS VISITING FERNIE

Gave Confirmation to Seventy-Five Children Yesterday at Interior Town

Fernie, B. C., May 18.—His Grace, Archbishop Timothy Casey, of Vancouver, arrived here on the evening train last night, direct from the Terminal City, accompanied by his secretary, and was met at the depot by a committee including the clergy and several laymen of the Church of the Holy Family. He was driven to the home of Father Michel, adjoining the church. At 8.45 a. m. to-day he officiated at the morning mass, when a large number of children took their first communion. At 10.45 he conducted high mass and preached to a very large audience. In the afternoon he gave confirmation to about seventy-five children and at 6.30 left for Michel, where he will administer the rite of confirmation to-morrow. Next Sunday he will officiate at the opening of the new industrial school at St. Eugene mission, six miles north of Cranbrook.

Kiel, Germany, May 19.—Five "one-year" volunteer soldiers of the German army and three German marines who accompanied them are believed to have been drowned in a storm here last night. They had gone out for a short pleasure cruise in a sailboat. The storm came up suddenly and their boat has not been seen.

A cruiser and several torpedo boats were sent out to-day to search for the missing boat and men.

FORGED TICKETS AT BIG TORONTO MEETING

Proceedings Against Conservative Ward Organizers Asked After Investigation

Toronto, May 19.—Information has been laid before the crown attorney, asking that proceedings be instituted for the punishment of R. C. Leaman, vice-president of the First Ward Conservative Association and inspector of plumbing in the city hall, and of W. L. Purvis, formerly license inspector and an active member of the First Ward Conservative Association, of the offence of circulating forged tickets for the Laurier meeting in the Arena on May 5.

When it was discovered that a very large number of tickets used to gain admission had been forged so that many of those holding genuine tickets were excluded altogether or forced to stand when seats had been promised, the officers of the Reform Association made an investigation with the object of ascertaining the names of persons who had printed and distributed bogus tickets.

The result of the investigation led to suspicion being placed on the two Conservative workers.

SCOTT AND FRIENDS DIED OF STARVATION

Canadian Member of South Polar Exploration Party Reaches Canadian Soil

HEADED THE PARTY THAT FOUND BODIES

Vancouver, May 19.—"We left Captain Scott and his brave companions where they met their death in their tent. We covered the tent with a mound of snow some fifteen feet in height and on top we placed a large wooden cross." So stated Canada's sole representative on the ill-fated Scott expedition to the Antarctic, C. S. Wright, of Toronto, who reached Vancouver yesterday, and last night told a modest story of his share in finding the body of Captain Scott and the bodies of his companions. He was in command of the search party which found Scott's body.

"The inscription we put on the cross over the tent was: 'This cross and cairn, erected over the remains of Captain R. F. Scott, C.V.O., R.N., Dr. E. A. Wilson and Lieut. H. R. Powers, R.M.L., as a slight token to perpetuate their gallant and successful attempt to reach the pole. This they did on the 17th of January, 1912, after the Norwegians had already done so, on the 1st of December, 1911, also to commemorate their two gallant comrades, Captain L. E. G. Oates, of the Inniskilling Dragoons, who walked to his death in a blizzard, willingly, about 20 miles south of this place, to try and save his comrades, beset by hardship, and also Petty Officer Edgar Evans, who died at the foot of Beardmore Glacier. "The Lord gave, and the Lord taketh away: blessed be the name of the Lord."'

"We left the bodies just as we found them, sleeping the last sleep in their sleeping bags. Their bodies were perfectly preserved, and their faces bore the smile of men who went to death knowing that they had done their duty for their country and their flag. There was no sign of their having suffered. They passed away in peace, conscious of a life's work well concluded.

"There seems to be a general impression that the death of Scott and his companions was due to the blizzard which had prevailed for three weeks prior to their death. That is not so. They were the victims of lack of food, not of the weather. The blizzard was bad, but it was not sufficient to kill in itself. It blocked progress and by doing so, compelled the consumption of all the food available, and so death came to them."

AUSTRIAN FARMERS SEEKING B. C. LAND

Forty Families in North Dakota Propose Settling in Peace River District

WANT FIFTY THOUSAND ACRES FOR AGRICULTURE

Vancouver, May 19.—As the forerunner of forty Austrian families, owning and representing wealth to the extent of $1,500,000 or more, George Platzer, one of the wealthiest of the group, left Vancouver yesterday for Fort George. His object is to locate sufficient land to supply the forty families which are at present successfully operating farms in North Dakota in the vicinity of Mandan.

In conversation with his banker, here, Mr. Platzer stated that if the colony decided to come to British Columbia the poorest man among them would have $5,000 cash in addition to his stock and furniture. Others would have as much as $25,000 cash, and the livestock they own is ranked with the best in the American west.

Mr. Platzer's object is to locate in the Peace River country 50,000 acres of good agricultural land. The most of this he expects to purchase from the provincial government, as he is sure that the government will do everything in its power to assist such a colony of wealthy and efficient farmers.

The story of the colony at Mandan is short but interesting. The Austrians came there about twelve years ago when land was cheap in the Dakotas. They all acquired farms, built a school, erected a church, raised their families, and finally overgrew their boundaries.

During the past winter a party of Russians came to the Austrians and offered to buy their land. In order to give more scope to their growing families, the Austrians consented to sell and a deal was put through by which the Russians will next autumn become possessors of all the land and holdings of the Austrians.

In making the sale the Austrians reserved their stock as they had been making a specialty of pure-bred cattle. This industry they determined to carry with them to whatever part of the country they might settle.

Mr. Platzer, one of the head men of the colony, knew a friend who had come to British Columbia and had become fascinated with the possibilities presented by the Peace River country. In looking for a new location for the colony he thought there could be no better place than in the northern interior of British Columbia, but before making any definite move towards bringing the colony out he first decided to investigate. He left for the north yesterday. On his report depends the settlement of the question as to whether or not British Columbia is to have the Austrian settlers, their money and their pure bred cattle.

Paris, France, May 19.—The fete given by the Schoolmasters' Association was made the occasion for a speech by the premier in which he referred to the attitude of France in the face of the attacks of which the country was the object at the time of the Nancy incident.

M. Barthou, the premier, who is also minister of education, in his presidential speech, began with an allusion to the good offices which the Schoolmasters' Association had rendered the cause of public education and national defense, entirely apart from all political considerations. Enthusiasm greeted M. Barthou's statement that "to love, sustain and defend the secular schools, was to love, sustain and defend the republic."

Referring to the recent political tension of which the Nancy incident was an outcome, M. Barthou declared that France had shown by the initiative she had taken, and by her actions, how firmly she was standing for the preservation of the world's peace. It is to judge badly our country, he declared, to accuse her of chauvinistic aggression. Public opinion and the press have shown themselves of one mind, in circumstances both decisive and difficult, in proving the extent and the measure of the dignity and calmness of the country.

It must be remembered, however, that this calm demeanor does not denote that interference will be brooked from any quarter. Too often the chauvinism which is imputed to France is a product from the other side of the frontier. France is devoted to the cause of peace, but only under the conditions that her dignity, her interests, and her rights, are secured, and that she is not asked to abdicate her memories, her past, and her civilizing mission.

CONTRIBUTION OF LADY TO CRIMINOLOGY

Gallic Countess Believes It Possible to Discover Parricides by Shape of Toe

Paris, May 19.—The Comtesse Mehusine, otherwise Mme. de la Rochefoucauld, has just given to the world the result of her researches into a remarkable and entirely new science which she claims to have discovered. Briefly, she can tell from its toes, whether a child in the cradle is going to kill its father when it grows up.

The idea was first suggested to her by the story of CEdipus, a famous parricide, who bore on his foot the stigma of the infamies which he was to accomplish. That made Mme. de la Rochefoucauld think very hard indeed, and ever since she has been busily engaged in inspecting the foes of parricides with a view to discovering if a definite type exists.

The result of her work is embodied in the momentous announcement which she has made in the last few days.

"He who is going to kill his father has a shorter big toe than most other people," says Mme. de la Rochefoucauld to a world listening with bated breath.

Once her discovery was complete, the gifted lady lost no time in communicating it to the proper people. Naturally, she went first of all to M. Bertillon, of finger-print fame. He thought it a very pretty idea, and recommended Mme. de la Rochefoucauld to take it to the prefect of police.

That functionary, however, said it didn't appeal to him very much, but thought it might interest the minister of the interior. So off went the discoverer to the ministry.

The presiding genius there was duly impressed, but said it was a case for Bertillon, and when it was explained to him that the anthropologist had already been approached, hinted vaguely that the president of the republic was a man to whom nothing came amiss.

So off went the scientist to the Elysee, since when nothing more has been heard of her.

FIFTEEN BODIES ARE BROUGHT FROM MINE

Man Thrown Three Hundred Feet by Explosion Was Only Who Escaped

Belle Valley, Ohio, May 19.—The bodies of fifteen men have been recovered from the Imperial mine, where explosions early Saturday night resulted in the death of fourteen miners and one rescuer. A rescue party descended early to-day and brought the dead to the surface.

The fourteen miners are said to have been killed almost instantly by the explosion. The bodies were found a mile and a quarter from the mouth of the mine. They were badly burned.

An investigation into the cause of the explosion will be begun to-morrow by officials of the state mining department. One of the rescued was thrown a distance of 300 feet by the explosion, and was the only man to escape from the section of the mine where the explosion occurred.

Cheaper Coal

Our Summer Nut Coal is cheaper, but it's just as good as the Winter kind. It's a mighty quick coal, too. It lights at once, burns with a clear flame, gives a great heat for just as long as it takes you to get the dinner cooked, and then dies out in a clean white ash before the house has had time to get overheated.

Order our Nut Coal. It does more work in less time, you use less of it and it costs you less, too.

GENIUS DISCOVERED IN A WORKHOUSE

Talented Sculptor Who Was Never Trained Has Carved Beautiful Figures

CHAPEL LECTERN IS PERFECT MASTERPIECE

London, May 19. — Alfred Riggs, a Halifax man of forty, who has drifted to the Southwark Union Workhouse in the borough of London, England, is obtaining for himself something more than a local reputation for his wonderful carvings in wood.

Riggs has had no art or technical training, yet is able to carve with anatomical accuracy and real artistic feeling fine models of birds and beasts familiar and exotic.

Some time ago it was found that on one of the workhouse walls had been limned in crayon a representation of a peacock. It was beautifully colored, and every feather was drawn with surprising naturalness. The artist was not discovered at the time, but a little later Riggs voluntarily carved a model of a human foot to assist the men in the sock-darning operations, and the master, Mr. Adams, came to the conclusion that Riggs was the author of the drawing also.

Riggs has now just completed a 5-foot lectern for use in the workhouse chapel. This in its way is a chef d'oeuvre. Few craftsmen would not have hesitated before utilizing for the purpose such unpromising material as rough yellow deal, full of knots and cracks, and of a sort usually chopped up for firewood. Riggs made the best of it, and with a modest set of tools, in a temporary workshop fitted up in one of the sleeping apartments of "the house," the fragile little man in the surprisingly short space of one month, and entirely without help, completed his task.

The lectern is surmounted by an American eagle with outstretched pinions, which revolves upon a carved pedestal. The bird has been made in three sections, and measures 28 inches across its wings, 32 inches from beak to tail, and 23 inches in height. It rests upon a maple branch, and stands in a natural attitude.

The panels of the pedestal are works of art in themselves. One depicts an angel pointing heavenwards and raising a child from the ground; another an angel at prayer; and a third has a pastoral subject.

At the foot of the pedestal on either side are the heads of lions, tigers, bulls, and bears; and the winged heads of cherubim, after the style of Reynolds, are carved on the pedestal head.

With his little set of tools, Riggs has fashioned quite a number of small animals, adding to their value by judicious coloring and staining. His model of a hawk with a trout in its beak is one at which few natural history students would cavil. A crucifix shows rare depth of feeling, and appreciation of the dignity of form.

EIGHTEEN HUNDRED HOMELESS BY FIRE

Refusal to Work on Sabbath Results in Disaster for Jewish People

Pressburg, Hungary, May 19.—The extent of a fire in the ghetto here yesterday, where 1,800 persons were made homeless, might have been considerably lessened but for the strict religious observance of the orthodox Jews in refusing to perform any labor on the Sabbath.

It was only after the chief rabbi gave his congregation dispensation that the men started to save the women and children. The ghetto, which was the most ancient in Europe, was completely destroyed.

While the buildings were burning the people stood by and saw their possessions swept by the flames, but refused to render any assistance in extinguishing the fire.

DR. LIEBKNECHT IS NOTED SOCIALIST

Revealer of Methods of Krupp Armament Company Earned Fame in Conspiracy Trial

HAS SERVED LONG TERM IN THE STATE PRISON

London, May 19. — Dr. Karl Liebknecht is at present a European celebrity, but had the memory of the public not been so short he would have enjoyed European fame long ago. It was in 1904 that he first became known as counsel for defence in the famous conspiracy trial of German socialists charged at Konigsberg with assisting Russian revolutionists living abroad in transporting over the frontier seditious literature and rendering them services of a similar kind.

Young barrister as he then was, Karl Liebknecht undertook the defence of the accused; and succeeded in turning the trial into one huge political indictment of the Prusso-German regime. It was a piece of political agitation of the highest order, and it was carried out in a way that made the name of Liebknecht famous in the most distant corners of the German empire. The Prussian reaction was simply stripped naked before the eyes of the whole world and shown in all its unloveliness to the thousands and thousands of spectators who had still been ignorantly admiring its brilliant exterior. That single trial brought to the ranks of the opposition innumerable recruits from quarters hitherto untouched by political propaganda.

His anti-militarist agitation has for its special object to educate the youth of the working class in the spirit of peace and internationalism, but he also went so far as to suggest propaganda in the barracks and among the army generally, for which, however, he never gained the sympathy of his fellow socialists. Ultimately he was convicted of "seditious" propaganda and sentenced to eighteen months confinement in a fortress, but on his release he was returned at the elections of 1907 to the Prussian Landtag as one of a small group of socialists who entered those sacred precincts for the first time in Prussian history.

This again made him a celebrity for the time being in his fatherland, but a still greater sensation was to come in January, 1912, when he was elected to the Reichstag for the Prussian royal borough, the Potsdam constituency, where the court and military naturally constitute the greatest social forces. This was a resounding "box in the ear" for the ruling clique on the part of the electors, who evidently delighted in seeing the most implacable enemy of the Prussian monarchist and military regime and one who had but recently "done" imprisonment for high treason, to act as spokesman of the foremost constituency in Prussia.

And now by his revelations in the Reichstag concerning the methods of the Krupp company Herr Liebknecht has dealt the same powers another and not less sensational blow. He stands on the extreme "left" of his party, hating all compromise, and firmly believing in the inevitability of a revolution.

AUSTRALIAN RECIPROCITY.

Melbourne, May 19.—Details of the reciprocity agreement between Canada and Australia, are now being arranged, according to a statement by the commonwealth minister of customs, Hon. Frank Tudor. MALCOLM IS CANDIDATE.

Saskatoon, Sask., May 19.—At a convention of Liberals at Hanley on Saturday, Macbeth Malcolm, of Hanley, was chosen as the candidate to contest that constituency in the coming provincial bye-election. The bye-election was made necessary by Dr. B. W. Macneill vacating the seat to become superintendent of the provincial asylum at North Battleford.

WOULD ADJOURN THE LEGISLATURE YEARS

Governor Hodges of Kansas Wants to Give State Chance to Catch Up

Topeka, Kas., May 19.—Governor George Hodges would have the Kansas legislature cease meeting for eight or ten years so that the state could catch up with the laws now on its statute books. For six years now Kansas legislatures have been passing the most progressive enactments in the country. Some of the first things Kansas did and other states are copying are: Kansas blue sky law: copied by 17 states. Abolished common drinking cups; copied by 28 states and governments. Abolished common roller towels. Created first small debtors' courts where lawyers and fees are unknown. Provided efficiency test for all bank employees. Provided first rating bureau for fire insurance.

"Let the legislature disband for a number of years until the state catches up," said the governor. "We have a greater number of progressive laws upon our statute books than any other commonwealth.

In some respects, notably criminal investigations, the English people are a hundred years ahead of us, and they are more careful in business matters. But when it comes to hustle the Americns forges right ahead.—Detective William J. Burns.

MR. PRICE COMES BACK.

We are in receipt of the following contribution from W. H. Price, secretary of the Victoria Conservative Association:

Sir: Under the caption of "See Mr. Price," in your issue of Saturday last many erroneous statements appeared and I beg to request the favor of at least removing some of them.

From inquiries I have made since you made the statement I find that a firm, and I am certain it is the firm you allude to, did make application for a tender form, and was refused, and the reason I understand is because the said firm (who has had a monopoly of the business for 13 years during the Liberal government regime) committed a breach of the contract with the Marine and Fisheries Department.

The firm who are not named, after being awarded the contract for certain supplies, refused to fill their contract and the government at their request returned their cheque, and I understand that it is on this account that the government decided that in the future they would deal with reliable firms only.

Now, sir, you will have the opportunity of denying this statement that I am going to make, when I state that it is a fact that 90 per cent of the firms who are doing the business of the government to-day are the same firms who supplied the Liberal government. Mr. Editor, if you wish and you will give me the space I will furnish your readers with information which will prove that for fifteen years no Conservative was allowed, no matter how low his tender was (and I can prove that they were below the tenders of Liberal firms), a chance of getting any business. When the gentleman who asked for a tender form was refused, he said he would go and see Mr. Price, but as Mr. Price has never interfered in the government business, outside of seeing that the Grits were kept out of office, the gentleman knew better than come and see me.

Yours respectfully,
W. H. PRICE,
Hon. Sec'y. Cons. Assn.

A more lengthy communication from the same writer appeared in our contemporary yesterday morning, and from it we cull this gem:

"In reference to the second editorial, in which my name was again mentioned with the coal business, these are the facts: Mr. Joshua Kingham, who was contractor for supplying the dredges and tugs of the Public Works Department, notified the captains of the various plants that owing to the strike at the Western Fuel mines, he would be unable to furnish them with any more fuel. The superintendent of dredges was advised of Mr. Kingham's difficulty, and advised the captains to get the fuel required elsewhere, the coal market being bare. They obtained fuel from the only firm able to supply it, Messrs. Kirk & Company. This is the sum total of the charges made. Whilst I am in the coal business, I have not up to the present supplied any fuel to the government department; but the fact of being a Conservative should not preclude me from doing business if I wish. And I am free to tell the Times I will do business with whom I wish and at no time will I consider them in the matter.

"Victorians never knew that Mr. Kingham had a mortgage on the coal business; and if I can supply coal at as good prices as any other firm, what does it matter whether I am a Conservative or a Socialist?"

Both of Mr. Price's letters bristle with gross misstatements—and clumsy ones at that. It was not because of the alleged unreliability of the ship chandlery firm referred to that a tender form was refused its representative, but because it was suspected of Liberal political sympathies. Neither had the firm a monopoly of the business for "fifteen years," because on numerous occasions an establishment which to-day has the distinguished endorsement of Mr. Price obtained contracts simply because it happened to be the lowest tenderer. Conservative dealers in paint and coal supplies received contracts from the late government department of public works, marine and fisheries, militia and naval service, on the basis of their tenders. Mr. Price helps us to make this point by his admission in his letter to the morning paper that the late government had adopted the business-like rule of calling for tenders and awarding the contracts to the firms whose prices were the lowest. This also disposes of the fiction that "no Conservative was allowed a chance of getting government business, no matter how low his tender was." That charge was false, unblushingly so even for Mr. Price.

Mr. Price, with characteristic recklessness, adds: "When the gentleman who asked for a tender was refused, he said he would go and see Mr. Price," but he did not do so. The truth is that when the gentleman asked for a tender form he was informed that none could be furnished him without the approval of Mr. Price. We know this is precisely what happened, and we do not think our statement will be questioned even in the face of the version loosely given by the local director of the fleshpots.

As to the coal supplies for the dredges, we note that our correspondent does not contradict our statement that Mr. Kingham was the lowest tenderer, and that instructions have been received ordering the purchase of coal from Mr. Price. It is not true that Mr. Kingham said he would be unable to furnish the coal because of the strike at the Western Fuel Company's mines. He is quite prepared to carry out the contract if he receives it—an unlikely contingency, although he is the lowest tenderer, because of the sudden entrance of Mr. Price into the coal business.

Mr. Price, we observe, has acquired from the federal government an office in the old post office building, upon the windows of which he is described in a glowing and neatly executed legend as a notary public. The description might be amplified by an announcement in harmony with the general excellent design that he is now in the coal business, a circumstance with which the public until very recently have not been aware.

Mr. Price explains that he has never interfered in government business. As a matter of fact, this is the main burden of his many activities these beautiful spring days. Not only that, but he has so lost his sense of discrimination between private and public business that he has interfered in matters which do not concern him even as secretary of the Conservative Association. When the Monteagle passengers were quarantined at William Head recently the C. P. R. appointed its own watchmen, obtaining them from an agent in touch with the class of men wanted. Mr. Price telephoned to the agent that he was not to recommend any more men for this service without consulting him. Naturally the C. P. officials resented this unwarranted and impertinent interference, and took certain measures which convinced Mr. Price that as a dictator he had his limitations.

We quite appreciate the delicate little touch with which Mr. Price referred to the results of the elections in this city and the conscious pride which obtruded from every letter. There can be no doubt that to his activities a considerable part of his party's success is due. Liberals have always been too willing to make this concession to his peculiar ability. The voters' list is a conspicuous tribute to his success in that regard—so conspicuous that even the government blushes for its condition and is engaged just now in preparing a new one. Let us hope that Mr. Price's contribution to the new roll will not bake it necessary for another purging a year hence.

A FOOLISH STRIKE.

A few days ago the representative of the United Mine Workers at Seattle issued a strike order to the miners at Nanaimo and vicinity. Although less than one-fifth of the men in this district were members of the organization, practically all have discontinued work. No grievances were alleged by the men, and the strike order did not imply that the relations between them and their employers were unsatisfactory. Its admitted purpose was a manifestation of sympathy with the strike at Cumberland and Ladysmith, which has been in progress for some months. Apparently those who ordered the Nanaimo strike reasoned that if they could tie up all the coal mines of the island, pressure would be brought to bear upon the Canadian Collieries to make some concession to the demands of their men.

But what has been the result of the order? The Canadian collieries are producing coal to the extent of at least three-fifths of their capacity. They are bringing miners from other points, and it is charged that they are employing Orientals. But aside from these circumstances, the United Mine Workers' officials have played into their hands by removing from the field the competition of the Nanaimo mines. They have helped rather than injured the company with whom they are at war.

A sinister circumstance has arisen in connection with this situation. No sooner were the mines at Nanaimo tied up than enterprising representatives from the Washington coal fields invaded the local market for contract orders. It has also opened a fine opportunity for the activities of the oil producers of California, who with characteristic shrewdness and enterprise will take every advantage of the situation. So in consequence of the strike order issued from Seattle to the miners of Nanaimo, the men who work in the Washington coal mines and the California oil fields will benefit at the cost of our own labor. If ever there was an instance of men biting off their noses to spite their faces it exists at Nanaimo to-day.

The strike at Nanaimo is unfortunate and unnecessary. It is futile, because instead of assisting in the adjustment of the difficulties between the Canadian Collieries and their men at Ladysmith and Cumberland, it confines the coast market to them and the producers from Washington by obstructing competition from the other island mines. There was no occasion for the majority of the men at Nanaimo and vicinity to pay any attention to the order, because they were not members of the International organization. That they have allowed themselves to be influenced by the edict is due to the fact that they were unable to resist the reproaches and jibes of those who are behind it. Admittedly the case of the Cumberland miners has its merits. That of the Nanaimo strikers is not based upon grievances against their employers, but upon nothing more substantial a strike order issued from Seattle.

By the way, what has become of the Hon. Col. Hughes' fleet of flying ships? Readers of the newspapers will remember that when the announcement was made that Canadians could hardly ever expect to either build or man a navy, the doughty Colonel hinted that he would have a squadron of aerial warships attached to his militia forces.

* * *

Conservative members of parliament have presented Mrs. R. L. Borden with an automobile made in Ohio. Mrs. Borden's numerous friends and admirers throughout Canada will be pleased to hear of this tribute to her deserved popularity, but how can the wife of Mr. Borden, of all people, ride in an American-made machine? What about those east and west trade routes? Think of the grief of the auto manufacturers of Tory Ontario!

* * *

W. H., coal merchant and political broker, boasts (as possibly he is entitled to do) of the elections he has won in Victoria for the Conservative party. There may be some good and honest Tories who will think it is hardly in good taste for the bold organizer to thus arrogate to himself all the glory of several inglorious campaigns. Is the resourceful Mr. Price at once the cause and the effect? What do Mr. G. H. Barnard and the invincible four think about it?

* * *

R. F. Green, M. P., also tells the Colonist some very important news. He says the government he supports is thoroughly alive to the importance of the ports on the Pacific. Alive to everything but the importance of protecting the ports (surely not the least important matter), Mr. Green might have said but for the unfortunate exigencies which allied him and his chief very closely with the Nationalists.

VAGRANCY CASES.

Given Time to Leave Town—Chinaman Wants Vancouver Lawyer.

It is the allegation of the police that John Sullivan is a loose, idle and disorderly person, and Detective Heather gathered him in on lower Johnson street on Saturday night.

In the police court this morning the officer stated that he had known Sullivan for six months past, and for the last three weeks had seen him hanging about Johnson street and around saloons, not working. When arrested he had ten cents in his pocket.

Sullivan's story, which he got out in part in questioning the detective, was that he had been working for the cement company until recently. He denied that he frequented bars.

City Prosecutor Harrison suggested that the man be given a chance to get out of town, and he was allowed out on his own recognizances until tomorrow morning. If he has not either secured work or left town then he will be sentenced as a vagrant.

Wing Sing did not look like a vagrant, but that was the charge read out, and translated to him by the Chinese interpreter, Ah Wing.

His answer to this was that he wanted time to get his lawyer over from Vancouver.

Magistrate Jay pointed out that he could secure all the legal talent here that he could possibly require, and would not allow a remand beyond tomorrow morning.

GARDENING.

Have you got a garden where you gather wealth
Of the kind that comes from an abundant health?
There are other gardens full of human plants
Waiting for the worker looking for a chance!

Do you carry water to the thirsty rose,
To the pallid lily, Queen of all the close?
There are human roses, lilies, on the way,
Waiting for refreshment thirstier than they!

Do you weed your garden, freeing it of woe,
That the tender blossoms may more freely grow?
There are human blossoms choking mid the weeds,
Of the stress of sorrow, and their daily needs!

In the human garden—that's the place to work!
That's the place where dangers to the flowers lurk!
In the city byways, in the slums of dole,
Where there might be sprouting Roses of the Soul!

SAILORS' INSTITUTE CLAIMS PRESENTED

Needs of Victoria and Other Ports Placed Before Minister of Marine

"The more I sail the sea the more certain I am of the excellence of the work which is being done among seamen by such organizations," was the testimony given by the late Capt. R. F. Scott, while on his way to the South Pole, to the work of seamens' institutes the world over.

This valuable witness was cited to the minister of marine and fisheries, Hon. J. D. Hazen, by a deputation representing the sailors' homes and institutes of the Dominion which waited upon him a few days ago. Among the members of the deputation were Hon. C. J. Doherty, Hon. Martin Burrell, several members of parliament from both sides of the House, J. Ritchie Bell, who has been for twenty-five years manager of the Montreal Sailors' Institute; Rev. Alfred Hall, representative in Canada of the British and Foreign Sailors' Society.

Memorandum Presented.

A memorandum was formally presented to the minister "on behalf of all sailors, whether belonging to the navy, the mercantile marine or the fishing fleets, and irrespective of the nationality, religion or rating of individual men, to seek government assistance in making provision for their welfare while in port at homes and institutes." It was further set out that the enoromus development of Canadian shipping, quoted in the Admiralty memorandum at 260,000,000 tons yearly, bringing 400,000 men on ocean-going ships, has raised this to the level of a great national interest. What is being done at Victoria, Montreal, St. John, Halifax, Vancouver, Quebec and North Sydney was briefly summarized. It was stated that many countries, and especially the maritime portions of the empire, gave instances of government aid in the shape of contribution to building and extending of institutes, and of annual grants to approved institutes, both on a scale proportioned to the outlay.

Mr. Hazen raised the question why sailors should be provided for by the government any more than, say, railway men, and spoke of the work of the marine hospitals maintained out of the two-cent tax on shipping.

The practice in Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa was explained to the minister. Hon. Mr. Doherty made a strong plea for the claims of the work, based on his knowledge of what is done by the Catholic Sailors' Club in Montreal, and G. H. Barnard mentioned a feeling in the western ports that the whole of the tax raised on vessels entering those ports was not used.

Prefer Institutes.

Mr. Bell, whose long experience and profound knowledge of the subject was of much value to the conference, combatted a suggestion that was made to the effect that sailors preferred to go to Salvation Army homes rather than to their own institutes.

Mr. Hazen wanted to know if it was desirable for the government to take the place of private generosity in such cases, and if the deputation suggested that a new tax should be imposed on shipping for the maintenance of institutes.

To this it was replied that there was no suggestion of a new tax, but the government, out of its resources, might aid in erecting buildings and devote a much larger sum annually to the institutes on its list. Instead of checking private liberality this would inspire and encourage it, the deputation urged. The great need at the ports of Victoria and Vancouver in view of the coming increases in shipping, and the brave struggle that is being made locally to meet that need, were set before the minister particularly.

Mr. Hazen admitted that the grants to sailors' institutes were small, but promised to see if anything could be done to increase them, and to the other matters brought to his attention he assured the deputation he would give sympathetic consideration.

You Are a Pianist

You are capable of rendering the most difficult selections, not passably, but well. Perhaps you are even more than this; perhaps you are a musician of rare ability, of a depth of soul that even you yourself do not suspect. You need only a means of expression.

Now, for the moment, just distinguish between the two factors which ordinarily constitute the successful pianist—the ability to feel and interpret through sounds and the ability to render the sounds. The first is the essential quality in the true musician; this is the quality that is born, not made. The second is acquired by study and practice, and is made, not born.

The GERHARD HEINTZMAN PLAYER-PIANO—Canada's Best—makes it unnecessary for you to put in the arduous years of study and practice necessary to acquire the second qualification. You can play the piano NOW, without a moment of practice save the few minutes required to familiarize yourself with the principle.

The GERHARD HEINTZMAN PLAYER-PIANO consists of an easy, efficient, 88-note player attachment built into the sterling Gerhard Heintzman Piano. The same sweet, lasting tone and the same wonderful action, the same beautiful design and case architecture and surpassing finish—with the hard work left out.

LEAVES FOR SKAGWAY WITH MUCH FREIGHT

Princess May Finds Business Brisk in North With the Opening of Season

PREPARE PRINCESSES FOR HOLIDAY WORK

Special Arrangements for Victoria Day; Double Midnight Steamers on Three Nights

With the opening of navigation in the rivers of the north the pressure on the freight space is very large on all steamers going north, and the Princess May, Captain McLeod, which gets away at midnight, will be taxed to the utmost. This may be the last sailing before the double run, shared with the Princess Sophia, will be inaugurated.

Probably some of the freight at Vancouver will have to remain over for the Princess Ena. By the time the May reaches northern waters the navigation on the Skeena river should be in a sufficiently open position to see the Port Simpson resume her trips, and there is certain to be a large amount of freight for Wrangell, as it is the port for the Stikine river, where operations are being resumed.

The special schedule which the Canadian Pacific officials have provided for the Vancouver run during the holiday this week will result in the Princess Alice and Royal both leaving nightly at 11.45 and midnight for Vancouver on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday the Adelaide will leave at 6 p. m. The Alice will depart from Vancouver at 8 a. m., and the Charlotte at 9.30 a. m. in order to bring visitors to the celebration here. For the Victoria Day festival at Nanaimo the Princess Patricia, which is now being overhauled here, will make two sailings from Vancouver, at 10 a. m. and 6.30 p. m.

TEES WILL TAKE HORSES TO NOOTKA

West Coast Steamer Had Pleasant Trip Southbound; Whaling Season

When the Tees, Capt. Gillam, gets away to-morrow evening for the West Coast she will take up horses and supplies to Nootka for the survey party which went in on behalf of the Canadian Northern railway recently, and whose duty it is to look over the location for a right of way through that region.

The steamer is coaling now for her next trip. The officers report that unusually good weather was experienced on the last southbound journey. They did not hear much of the whaling industry at the stations at Kyoquet and Sechart, as the returns are carefully guarded, but it was gathered that the season was satisfactory. The fishing centres on the west coast are becoming busy, and great activity prevails at the Kildonan canneries at Uchucklesit. Clay will be brought down on the next trip from Kyoquet for the British Columbia Pottery company.

The pasesnger business is being improved by the number of surveyors and others who have business at outlying points, now that the season has opened up.

JESSIE RETURNS FROM THE HALIBUT GROUNDS

The fishing schooner Jessie, Captain George Heater, berthed yesterday to land her capture here. She brought in about 40,000 pounds of halibut, this being something less than usual. The local market will be able to absorb all the catch. The schooner had good weather on the banks, and Captain Heater was kept busy. He stated that the fish were plentiful, and that the Jessie would be back on the grounds as soon as the present consignment was cleared out from the lockers.

No signs of poaching were visible, and in fact the trip passed off without incident.

STRIKES AT STONESBAY.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., May 19.—The new wrecking vessel "Premier" purchased by Playfair and Penhorwood for service at Sault Ste Marie, while coming up from Montreal after crossing the ocean, struck at Stonesbay on Lake Huron, and is in a dangerous position. The Premier was towing the Ionic to Collingwood.

The freighter Kina, of the Danish East Asiatic line, which is now at San Francisco, will discharge 1,000 tons of steel girders at Howard street wharf before coming north to British Columbian ports. No outward charter has yet been announced for the vessel.

TACOMA MAKES OVER TWENTY KNOTS AN HOUR

Seattle, May 19.—Maintaining a speed of better than 20 knots on hour and demonstrating that she is all that is claimed for her by her builders, the steel daylight passenger steamer Tacoma, just completed for the Inland Navigation Company at the plant of the Seattle Construction & Drydock Company, was given her trial voyage and speed tests yesterday. It had been planned to have the Tacoma perform on the government measured course off Vashon Island, but when that part of the Sound was reached it was discovered that the markings had been removed, and it was decided to make a trial voyage to Tacoma. The race against time began as the fleet vessel swung into Elliot Bay and ended directly opposite the Colman dock, from which she will steam on regular schedule from this port up the Sound.

ANOTHER JAPANESE LINE TO USE PACIFIC

Suzuki and Co. Will Place Five Steamers on the Route

Suzuki & Co., the large flour millers at Moji, Japan, propose to place five steamers in the trans-Pacific service, commencing about September 1. The vessels will be the Nankai, Shinsei, and Fukoku Maru, and two others recently purchased.

Each of the steamers has a cargo capacity of between 6,000 and 8,000 tons and will bring general Oriental cargo this way, and take over flour and wheat, loading largely on the Columbia river. As the mills turn out 3,000 barrels of flour a day, it is expected that the demand for American and Canadian wheat will be large. In addition to supplying the mills, the company will purchase flour to meet the call of customers.

The improvements in the services of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha and the Toyo Kisen Kaisha have already been noted in these columns, so the further developments now announced demonstrate that the Japanese are bidding for the American business, and will do everything to secure the local trade on the trans-Pacific route. The Nippon line will transfer at an early date some of the steamers which have been in the European run, as those now under construction have been launched at the yards where they are now under construction.

FUNERAL OF VICTIM

Vancouver, May 19.—On Saturday afternoon the remains of Henrikson, a member of the crew of Ophir, were buried at Mountain View cemetery. Henrikson was the only one of the victims who was identified. Captain Rogers, of the owning company, and Captain Bissel were among the mourners who also included Captain Johannsen of the Ophir, and the survivors.

EVERY BERTH IS TAKEN ON GEORGE

Large Passenger List When Grand Trunk Pacific Steamer Sails To-night

SURVEY PARTIES GO TO QUEEN CHARLOTTES

Travel to North is Steadily Increasing With Country's Development

Every berth will be taken when the Prince George, Captain Donald, gets away to-night from Vancouver for the northern Grand Trunk terminal. When she left port this morning among the numerous passengers were two survey parties, one for Masset and the other for Naden Harbor. Both will cross from Prince Rupert on the Prince Albert to take up their work in Queen Charlotte Islands.

In the party of C. deB. Green for Masset were eleven members, and Green and Gillespie's company, headed by R. D. Gillespie and A. T. Green, for Naden Harbor, included a dozen.

Other northbound passengers were W. F. Thompson, John F. Thompson and C. P. Hichman, Mrs. M. Anderson, E. J. Tingley and S. E. Golet. From Vancouver the Juvenile Bostonians will go north on tour. Every berth will be filled.

Out or respect for the memory of the late W. E. Davis, passenger traffic manager, Montreal, who died last week, the flags were at half-mast to-day.

Travel to the north is becoming very popular now, and every steamer which sails has large numbers of passengers bound to the new land which the Grand Trunk Pacific railway is opening to the world.

MEXICO MARU WILL REACH PORT MAY 29

Yokohama Will Arrive on Wednesday Morning Sado Maru Due Out To-morrow

The Mexico Maru, Captain Kobayashi, will be the next Osaka boat to show up at the outer wharf from the Orient. She should berth here on May 29, and, although the Seattle was delayed, there is no reason to anticipate that the Mexico will be held at all. She is bringing from 350 to 500 tons for Victoria and Vancouver. There will be some 130 Oriental passengers, and on 111 of the 120 Chinese the head tax has already been paid.

The Yokohama Maru, Captain Wada, will be in on Wednesday, probably in the forenoon. She has 187 passengers for Victoria, and 443 tons of cargo for Canadian importers. Prior to her arrival, however, the Sado Maru, Capt. Osahawa, should get away for Yokohama to-morrow.

MISTAKE OF PLACES IN REPAIR OF FINGAL

A curious story appeared in the Vancouver Sun on Saturday with regard to the repair of the Norwegian barque Fingal, which received attention here last month.

The writer has evidently confused the drydock with the British Columbia Marine railways at Esquimalt. The master, who is declared to be the informant, the writer states, said that the Fingal was not allowed to get a position on the ways until a coast steamer had been given preference, and that when he did get on only a few hours was allowed him before the vessel was ordered off.

Mr. Bullen said this morning that the negotiations with the master of the Fingal did not mature, and that if the captain did have the barque repaired it must have been at the government drydock.

HEAD LIGHTS

The largest oil tanker which has yet been in Saanich Inlet will arrive this week from San Francisco, the Washtenaw being due to make an appearance. She will discharge half her cargo at Bamberton for the cement company, which is shortly to commence operations. The tanker will then proceed to Vancouver.

* * *

The steamers operated by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, between Puget Sound and Californian ports, will be converted into oil burners. Vessels like the President and Governor will make two miles an hour more in speed in consequence of the change.

SEATTLE BERTHS WITH VALUABLE SILK CARGO

Many Chinese Cross Pacific on Osaka Liner; Run Uneventful

After an uneventful run the Seattle Maru, of the Okasa fleet, berthed early yesterday morning at the outer docks. The weather across the Pacific was excellent, and allowing for the delay in Yokohama, the trip was well under schedule.

She brought over one British passenger for this port, Capt. Arthur I. Dawes, and 138 Orientals, of whom 19 were Japanese, and the balance Chinese. The most valuable feature of the cargo was the silk consignment, which will be rushed east from Tacoma. There was also a large quantity of Oriental merchandise, rattan chairs, rice, native wines, tapioca and porcelain. The total cargo for this port was about 350 tons. The Seattle got away later in the day for the Sound after discharging the local cargo.

The Japanese passengers included Rev. S. Nomi for Portland and K. Kikushiwa, an editor, who debarked here.

ASSEMBLING CREW TO COMMISSION ESTEVAN

Official changes on account of the Estevan coming into commission for the Marine and Fisheries Department became effective to-day. Captain Barnes, late of the Newington, succeeds to the command, and is replaced in the old North Sea trawler by Capt. Billton, of the Cascade. The captaincy of the Quadra, rendered vacant by the appointment of Captain John Macpherson as wreck commissioner, is now occupied by Captain C. Le Blanc.

The agent of the Marine and Fisheries Department, Capt. Robertson, said this morning that the Estevan would be brought into service as soon as the crew had taken up their appointments, and the necessary material and stores had been shipped. The crew is being assembled to-day. Since the Estevan arrived she has been viewed by many, as a Canadian vessel built at Collingwood is by no means a common thing on this coast.

WITHIN ONE FOOT OF STRIKING SIDES

City of Puebla and Hyak Have Narrow Escape; Mistaken Signal

Seattle, May 19.—Misinterpretation of signals nearly resulted in a disastrous collision between the steamers Hyak and the City of Puebla as the two vessels were attempting to cross at a point about half-way between Alki Point and West Point at 6.30 o'clock last evening.

The captain of the Hyak, which was coming to Seattle from Port Madison, says he sounded the signal to the captain of the Puebla for the latter ship to cross forward of the Hyak. Thinking the signal had been rightly interpreted, he did not slow up the ship's speed.

When it was seen that both vessels were attempting to cross at the same point the captains of the two vessels realizing that an accident was almost inevitable, swerved their ships suddenly around. Passengers aboard the Hyak say that the vessels came within a foot of striking each other.

Women aboard the two vessels, upon hearing the danger signals, began to scream, and some became frantic and some fainted.

No damage was done to either vessel, nor were any of the passengers injured.

BEES RETURN FROM PORTLAND

Victoria Club Looks Much Stronger Than a Week Ago; Spokane Here To-day

"All that we need is another infielder, one who can serve as a utility man, and we will have the best balanced ball club in the league," was the satisfied statement of President Wattelet, of the Bees, who returned with the club this morning from Portland. "We did not do so badly on the road, and when the club gets working smoothly we will soon climb. The fans must not forget that on our recent road trip we were without the services of Bert Delmas and Danny Shea, both of whom were injured the first part of the week. We have secured a new right-handed twirler, also another hard-hitting outfielder, and are now ready to fight for a first division berth."

Hunt Was Sold.

Ben Hunt, the huge southpaw, whom the Bees picked up a couple of weeks ago, has been sold to the Chattanooga club, of the Southern League, while Outfielder Melchoir, whom the Bees secured from Spokane, has been turned over to Portland, McCredie's team being shy of outfielders. The team hit well on the road, but the pitchers ran into a couple of ninth innings' ascensions that cost two of the four games that the Bees dropped.

Rawlings at Second.

Mike Lynch has determined to make a second baseman out of Johnny Rawlings, and the youngster will go over to the right side of the diamond this week. Delmas will go into short field, with Lamb at third base. The change will work beneficially for Rawlings, while Lambe and Delmas should prove an effective combination. Delmas formerly played short for the Los Angeles club, and will work better in that position. The shift in the club also sends Charlie Swain to right field. The latter is fully thirty pounds lighter than when he played for Vancouver, and he is one of the speediest men in the league right now.

Dutch Kantlehner was to work today, and Danny Shea was to be ready for work also, though he split the index finger of his right hand for a couple of inches last Tuesday against Portland. Delmas was hit by a bad bounder. The split between his fingers required three stitches to bring together. He will be ready for work to-day or to-morrow.

"I guess we didn't do so badly against Seattle," said Mike Lynch this morning. "We broke even with the Tillikums, taking three out of six, while Vancouver lost six out of seven." The Bees' leader looks for four games this week from Spokane.

On May 24 the Victoria and Spokane teams will meet both in the morning and afternoon. To-morrow's game will start at 3.30.

This week, starting to-morrow, Seattle plays in Vancouver and Tacoma at Portland.

OPENING OF THE YACHTING SEASON

Truant Wins the Rickaby Cup Race Over Cadboro Bay Course

Splendid weather and a large crowd featured the opening of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club's programme for the coming season. Conditions could not have been better. The race for the Rickaby cup providing excitement for the enthusiasts present.

The freak method of handicapping the boats by having them all turn for home as soon as the leader reaches the set turning point provides lots of fun, according to those who raced Saturday, but needs more careful attention. The race was won by W. E. Adams' "Truant." Beauchamp Tye's boat coming second and D'O. Rochfort's "O. O." third.

Other entries were Drs. Harper, Nelson and Nash, Messrs. Edwards, Burton, Hays, Round and Cornwall. The officials were: Judge, Mr. McIntosh; starter, A. E. Locke, and judge of turning point, B. B. Temple.

Vancouver Race.

H. V. Ramsay's yacht Redskin was the winner of the first of the series of three races for the Rand cup, under the auspices of the Vancouver Royal Yacht Club, over a course of six miles in Burrard Inlet. There was only one other contender, R. M. Lambert's Tillicum, who, when leading, had one of her spreaders carried away.

J. B. A. A. CREWS.

Following crews have been chosen to represent the James Bay Athletic Association in the Victoria Day regatta: 1, B. E. Scott, stroke, G. Scott, R. Travis and J. Donaldson; 2, C. G. Heeston, stroke, C. S. Belson, A. C. L. Chalk, and P. Ogden; 3, J. G. McPherson, J. Sweeney, W. B. Monteith, C. Thomas; 4, Leo Sweeney, L. Patterson, R. Lees, W. S. Newitt. MOOSE TEAM WINS LEAGUE-OPENER

Nanaimo Baseball Club Easily Beaten 20 to 1; Grady Fans Fifteen

Nanaimo will have to furnish a better brand of baseball if the club is to remain in the running for the Island League baseball championship. The Moose club had an easy time disposing of the visitors in Saturday's opening fixture, winning 20 to 1. It might be mentioned that a number of the Coal City cracks were unable to reach the city in time for the game, substitutes being used. Grady fanned 15 of the visitors and did not give a pass, while all of the locals slugged the cork centre to all corners of the lot. Nanaimo contributed eleven "boots" also, which helped the locals along. The score:

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Sunday's Win Evens up the Series.

After all, the Bees didn't do so badly at Portland, breaking even with the Pippins, after Nick Williams' club had secured a running start on the locals. Narveson came through with his second win of the week, holding the Portland club to four dinky hits, and earned a shutout that only a double steal spoiled. The Bees played nice baseball all the way, even with a couple of their stars on the injured list, and banged out enough hits to win by a one-run margin. Lynch's club looks a whole lot better right now than when it left this burg. Swain will easily better the work of Melchoir in right field, while the infield changes ought to work for the better. Once the pitching staff strikes its stride, it will be clear sailing. That outfield of Feltz, Lynch and Swain looks as good as any in the league.

Seattle Takes a Firm Hold on First Place.

Bob Brown must have fainted yesterday when the 1912 champoins walked all over the Vancouver club for the sixth time in the recent series. Six out of seven is the count that Tealey Raymond's Giants hung on the Beavers, and it will take the Terminal City clouters some time overhauling that lead. Brown is depending on his sluggers to bat in the pennant, but with the pitchers in all the clubs going better every week, it is going to be a tough climb for the clouters wearing the Vancouver suits. McGinnity has the Tacoma team fighting tooth and nail for every victory that they chalk up. He is certainly getting better work out of his mis-fits than former managers, but it will greatly surprise the dopesters if the Tigers last until the end of June in the first division. Victoria is the club that contains the class and the local management are only waiting for things to break right before they claim any pennants.

Mann Cup Due for a Change of Residence.

It is certainly no credit to the V. A. C. twelve that they are credited with a win in the official standing of the Coast amateur serieis. Victoria had the so-called world's champions beaten to death in Saturday's fixture at the Terminal City and only the actions of the officials allowed Vancouver to stay at the top instead of reposing at the bottom of the heap. Vancouver was outgamed by the Victoria club in Saturday's gruelling struggle, and when the local team can overcome a three-goal lead and take the pace themselves, it shows that they are a team to be feared and one that will give the present holders of the Mann cup the greatest chase of their lives to retain the silverware. The protest of the local club is sure to receive consideration at the hands of the league, and there is not a spectator at Saturday's match but who will give the Capital City team full credit for scoring a victory over the champions. Poor work by the officials all through the match was capped by one of the worst decisions ever seen on a lacrosse field, when they allowed the fifth Vancouver goal to count, tieing the score.

FIVE CRICKET GAMES PLAYED SATURDAY

Albion Had Better of a Draw With Victoria C. C.; D. M. Grant Scored Century

ALBION B, UNIVERSITY AND COWICHAN WON

Sunshine and Plumb Wickets Made Games Interesting to Watch

King Cricket made his real debut on Saturday afternoon when the Albion club had easily the best of a drawn game with the Victoria cricket club on the Jubilee hospital ground. Easily the feature of the game was a century by D. M. Grant, the well-known Rugby footballer, who played with mid-season confidence and scored the greater part of his runs by well-placed boundaries or clean hits out of the ground.

Grant was given able assistance by the brothers Ismay who stayed at the wickets with him during the greater part of the inconsiderable time occupied in making the century. "D. M." was missed twice; when he had scored three runs he gave Spencer a difficult chance behind the stumps, and later on he skied one to Collinson, who misjudged the catch. The Victoria bowling appeared to lack a good deal of its usual sting, though the one and only L. S. V. York had the batsmen in difficulties on several occasions, his deceptive leg breaks accounting for both Trimen and G. Wilson. The fielding, on the other hand, was of the best, W. York's catch which dismissed Ward at cover-point, being a real sizzler.

Many Changes.

All kinds of bowling changes were tried by the Victoria captain, but his men were for the most part off their length, and Major in particular was punished unmercifully. Gray was probably the most successful of the trundlers and secured two valuable wickets. Albion declared with seven wickets down, leaving Victoria an hour and a quarter in which to make the runs. The task was, of course, an impossible one, and it must be said that the Victorias batted none too well considering the state of the pitch. Leonard was all at sea with an easy ball from Milne which spreadeagled his wickets. Cane and Gray stayed together for some time until the latter, in cutting one of Bornello's fast ones was beautifully snapped up at long slip by Hudson. Carew Martin was clean bowled and Maurice Cane gave an accepted chance to Grant who was officiating behind the wickets. Four good wickets were down for about fifty runs, but the brothers York came to the rescue and played out time.

A feature of the game was the great wicket keeping by H. A. Spencer, the Victoria stumper, who did not allow a single bye. He should be a great asset to the local club during the present season: Scores:

Cowichan v. Oak Bay.

Cowichan and Oak Bay battled at the suburban ground, which is to be the venue of the Australian games, on Saturday afternoon. Oak Bay put up a really good performance in disposing of the visitors for 64 runs, but such was the bowling strength of the up-island eleven, who were reinforced with their two best trundlers, Vaughan and Murphy, that the home eleven was skittled out for a score and a half of runs. Vaughan and Murphy shared the wickets, the former capturing five and the latter four. F. A. Crocker was the only Bay batsman to reach double figures and no less than five batsmen on the home sides retired for a "duck" apiece. Norman and Hadley bowled well for Oak Bay.

Victoria B. v. Albion B.

While the "A" teams were grappling in mortal combat at Jubilee Hospital, Victoria B. and Albion B. met for the first time this season at the Beacon Hill ground, where the Albion accounted for their opponents by fifty-five runs in a match that was full of incident from the pitching of wickets until the last Albion batsman retired to the pavilion. On the Victoria side the scoring was very uneven, three men accounting for ninety of the runs, while the other eight with "Mr. Extras" divided the other forty amongst them. Pilkington, who went in first, played a long and patient innings for 44, while P. D. Morrison knocked up a characteristic 32. Reeves was the only other Victoria batsman to pass the double figure rubicon.

Albion B. were in great batting form, no less than seven men keeping the scorer busy. Even the tail wagged merrily and Hoyle, Clegg and White wound up the game with a batting festa which added well over fifty runs. Hoyle and Pegler bowled well for the Albion.

Saanich Defeated.

The Saanich eleven were easily defeated at Mount Tolmie by the University School Incogs to the tune of 131 runs. F. A. Sparks was in great form, both with bat and ball, scoring 35 not out, and taking seven wickets for six runs, a feat which included the "hat trick." Barnacle made a welcome re-appearance in the University team and scored forty-four in his old manner without offering a chance. Sparks and Tracey proved too much for the visitors to handle, and Carrier, with a score of 15 not out, was the only batsman who seemed capable to stem the tide. The whole eleven were trundled out for thirty runs.

NARVESON GETS TWO WINS A WEEK PORTLAND LOSES

Portland, Ore., May 19.—Victoria won a listless game from the Portland Colts yesterday, making it an even break for the series. Narveson pitched good ball and held Portland to four hits, two of which were bunched with a double steal, giving the Colts their one run. Mays was wild at the outset, and in the first inning, after two were out, walked two men and hit two, forcing in a run. Rawlings' single, an infield out and Swain's Texas leaguer in the third scored the Bees' winning run. Neither team was seriously threatening except in the innings in which there were scores. Score:

VICTORIA TWELVE PROTESTS V. A. C. WIN

Locals Had Champions Beaten When Referee Tucker Allowed Goal to Be Counted

Vancouver, May 19.—After having beaten the Vancouver Athletic Club twelve five to four up to within forty seconds of full time, the Victoria Lacrosse Club was robbed of an earned victory over the Mann cup holders on Saturday afternoon, a goal which was scored by the Vancouver twelve after the referee's whistle had sounded stopping the play for a free fight, being allowed, this tying up the score. The Victoria club refused to continue if the score counted, and as the Vancouver referee and New Westminster judge of play refused to admit the sounding of the whistle, the tally was allowed. Manager Lorimer withdrew his team from the field and Referee Tucker lined up the V. A. C. team, which scored two goals upon the undefended net of the Victoria club.

Protest Entered.

An official protest is now on its way to the league secretary and the locals have asked that the game be replayed. Several of the Victoria players are willing to take affidavits that the whistle sounded. Both of the officials were separating the combatants in the fight which had started behind the Victoria goal, and were not looking when the goal was scored, and to the spectators in the grand stand it appeared as if the game had been held up. The Victoria defence ceased covering up the V. A. C. home players and it was an easy matter to put the ball past Johnson. The latter had played a sensational game and did not try to block McCuaig's shot. The crowd swarmed on the field when the fight began and scores were surrounding the group behind the Victoria goal when the rubber entered the Victoria nets. Referee Tucker refused to hear the protests of the Victoria club and took the goal as a score, the Victoria team withdrawing from the field.

Victoria Team Brilliant.

Up to the time of the disturbance, the game was hard fought. Vancouver took an early lead, but the Islanders played grand lacrosse in the third quarter, drawing even and finally taking the lead on Clute's running shot. Play was rough from the start, Sweeney and Crookall being ruled off for the balance of the game, a few minutes after the start. Victoria's defence starred, Johnson, Dakers and Clegg putting up a brilliant game. It was condition that allowed the Victoria team to creep up on the V. A. C. team, the Victoria twelve being in fine fettle. In the last period, when the entire Vancouver team was down on the attack, Brynjolfsen passed the ball, Clute, who beat the entire V. A. C. team to the goal, only to have his shot stopped in sensational style by Davis.

VICTORIA NEEDS BETTER PITCHING

League Averages Show Up Weaknesses of the Bees; Meek Leads Sluggers

Fielder Jones' new column to the official Northwestern League records, that for bases on balls drawn by batsmen, shows "Hunky" Shaw of Seattle the league's best "waiter." Hunky coaxed eight of his passes in the seven games of Seattle's Spokane series. Close behind "Hunky" is Stadille, Tacoma's diminutive leadoff hitter, and then comes "Stonewall" Jackson.

The leaders in this department of the game which President Jones thinks important enough to take especial attention from scorers are: 13, Shaw; 12, Stadille; 11, Jackson; 10, Nill, Strait, Nordyke; 9, Million, Bancroft, Rawlings; 8, Mohler, Cadman, Bennett; 7, Altman, Williams, Wilson, Raymond, Kippert; 6, Feltz, Frisk, MacMurdo.

As a tea mthe Seattle champions seem hardest to pitch to, deducting from the above figures, while Spokane seems to be the poorest lot of "waiters."

Stolen Bases.

Again the Seattle team shows up strong in "summary" stunts when it comes to base-stealing, Jackson and Raymond ranking one, two in this department of play to date. The leading base-swipers follow: Jackson, 13; Raymond, 10; Bancroft, 8; Strait, 8; Heister, 8; Altman, 6; Mahoney, 6; Kippert, 5; Walsh, 5; Yohe, 4; Powell, 4; Melchoir, 4; Williams, 4; Shaw, 4; Nill, 4; Wilson, 4; Morse, 4; Stadille, 4; Ruell, 4.

Sacrifice Hits.

Portland's bunters look best as shown in the following sacrifice hit summary: Kohler, 6; Speas, 6; W. Wilson, 6; Altman, 5; Cadman, 5; Heister, 5; Scharney, 5; Williams, 4; Nordyke, 4; Martinoni, 3; Guigni, 3; Nill, 3; Rawlings, 3; Weed 3; Walsh, 3.

BILLY WEEKS DEFEATED HAGEN

Billy Weeks, of Vancouver, a former amateur middleweight champion, who graduated into the pro. class some months ago and acquitted himself creditably in short rout bouts at San Francisco, went out Saturday in the Steveston Arena and cleverly outpointed, outfought and out-punched Romeo Hagen, Seattle's baker fighter, in a fifteen round argument. Weeks had fourteen rounds to his credit when the mill ended; Hagen had only one round in which he had a shade, so that it was an easy problem for Referee Queenan to solve in awarding the verdict.

On the shady side of 140 Pounds

If your weight exceeds 140 lbs. the tell-tale scale urges the wearing of the La Diva No. 809 corset known as the "NU MODE" sustaining.

This corset not only improves the appearance by reducing the abdomen by as much as six inches, while helping a graceful and erect figure, but it gives great comfort either sitting or standing—freedom from pressures which soon turn to pain—freedom from breaking over the hips;—these qualities being assured by their patented construction. Port Arthur & West $5.00

La Diva NON-RUSTABLE CORSET

Many imported so-called reducing corsets, which on account of customs duties are sold at from $1.00 to $3.00 more than the NU MODE are neither as comfortable nor as stylish.

There is a D. & A. or a La Diva model for every figure. Our catalogue, sent free on request, will help you to choose the best for yours.

A CAMPER'S CORRECTION.

To the Editor: On Tuesday, the 13th inst., the Rev. W. Barton is reported to have stated at the last meeting of the Oak Bay council that tin cans and other refuse was being deposited on Olympia avenue and the neighboring beach. He also is reported to have said that this litter is deposited there by campers in the locality. This is not only false, but an absolute misstatement of facts. I walked up Olympia avenue on the morning this article appeared in the paper and the street was in a perfectly tidy condition and not a particle of refuse was to be seen anywhere.

At one time some cans were deposited on the beach, but I have it on good authority that this was done before there were any campers in the vicinity. In fact, the greater portion of this refuse was removed by the authorities at the instigation of one of the campers.

In view of the impossibility of renting houses and the exorbitant rents required, if successful, is it quite befitting for a minister of the gospel to take such a selfish stand and to make such misleading statements? Or does the reverend gentleman find it easier to expound "Love thy neighbor as theyself" rather than practice it?

SPRING ASSIZES ARE IN PROGRESS

Opened This Morning With Mr. Justice Morrison Presiding; Heavy Calendar

TWO MURDER CASES WILL BE FIRST TRIED

Second Hearing of Charge Against Indian Taken Up When Court Began

The spring assizes for the judicial county of Victoria opened this morning in the assize court, before Mr. Justice Morrison. The calendar is the heaviest in the criminal annals of the county, and the trials are expected to last until the end of the month, if not into June.

There are two murder cases, one manslaughter case, the Bankers' Trust cases and half a dozen minor cases. In addition there is the second trial of a case in which the jury disagreed at the last assizes.

There was a large gathering of the public in the gallery of the court room, and the body of the chamber was filled with those summoned on the jury panel.

Sheriff Richards, H. B. Robertson, crown prosecutor, and Superintendent Campbell, of the provincial police, were present in their official capacities.

The crown prosecutor informed his lordship that in Rex vs. Wong the accused had elected for a speedy trial, and this case was withdrawn from the calendar.

The following were sworn in as grand jurors: Fred A. Pauline (foreman), Charles L. Armstrong, Ivor N. Napier, Frederick N. Francis, Percy L. James, George Eirick, Henry F. Norris, Geo. A. Richardson, James M. Savage, Robt. W. Gibson, Colin H. Merkley, James W. Okell, Robert Sangster.

Charge to Grand Jury.

Addressing them his lordship said that they had a long list of cases to deal with, involving several serious ones, two charges of murder and one of manslaughter being on the calendar. The first to which he would draw their attention was that of Edward Atkinson, accured of killing his wife. His lordship explained the circumstances of the case as alleged by the crown. The second case was that of a Chinaman, who had apparently been seen in the act of killing a fellow countryman. The jury should have no trouble in finding a true bill.

A young man named Telfer was charged with wounding with intent to maim, and this without provocation. There were two counts to the indictment and it would be for the jury to say whether a true bill should be found for wounding with intent or simply wounding. A Chinaman named Lee Chong was accused of the theft of a gun and a logger named Deakin of the theft of some logs.

An indictment for manslaughter had been laid against J. A. Rithet, who appeared to have been motoring homeward with a party of friends when a Chinaman was struck by the motor somewhere on Fishguard street, and died as a result. Looking into the evidence for the crown, which was only one side, the jurors would have to decide whether the charge had a prima facie foundation, whether it was an instance of misadventure or whether the man had run into the car. They must take all the surrounding circumstances into consideration—the hour of the morning, when perhaps a man would not be looking for traffic; who the Chinaman was and what he was doing, what the speed of the car was, though this had been difficult to determine, and everything else.

His lordship explained to the jurors that they were not trying the cases before them, and had only to be satisfied that the crown had made out a case which the accused should be called upon to answer. There were other cases to come before the jurors, on which he would address them later.

At noon the jurors returned with true bills for murder against Atkinson and Soo Quon.

Indian Again Arraigned.

Willie Billy, an Indian, was arraigned for a second time on a charge of attempting an indecent assault on a Mrs. Donovan, at Sidney, on January 18, 1912. At his last trial, at last spring assizes, the jury disagreed.

The following jury was sworn in: R. A. Anderson, foreman; C. G. Rowe, H. E. Ault, C. W. Dickson, D. F. Vincent, T. E. Astley, P. R. Little, D. J. Thomas, F. K. Bellow, J. Davis, A. G. Whitfield and F. H. Frye.

D. S. Tait and J. S. Brandon appeared for the prisoner.

Mrs. Donovan told of being met by a man, whom she swore was the accused, and of being taken hold of by him. She struck out at him with the lantern she was carrying and he forced her to her knees. She continued struggling with him until help came.

The cross-examination was directed to discrepancies between the police court testimony of the witness and her present evidence, and to the condition of her muddy clothes in reference to the state of the road.

A young school girl gave evidence of having seen a man attack Mrs. Donovan, but she was unable to identify him.

The case is continuing this afternoon.

YOUR MOTHER

By GEORGE MATHEW ADAMS

The sweetest word in the Language of Languages is that of—Mother. There is in each letter of this word a wealth of music so Divine—there are vibrating chords of Love so Angelic—that the whole world often pays Homage to Mothers whom it honors.

Nancy Hanks—the Mother of Lincoln; Frances Willard and Jane Addams—Mothers to the Motherless; Queen Victoria—the Mother of a Nation of Mothers.

You—whoever you are—your greatest Asset is your Mother. You—bankrupt, discouraged, failure-riddled, hope-wasted, heart-wrenched, self-estranged—there remains still a Day, glorious in Sunsets for you if you will but get back again, in Thought, or Heart, or Person—to your Mother.

The most wonderful Event in the History of the World was when the first Woman became—a Mother. Human Life has become a beautiful thing because the world has had its Mothers.

The greatest Characters in every community are the Mothers. The greatest community is that which honors its Mothers most. The greatest men in any community are those who render the highest tribute to Motherhood.

No one ever has Surpassed or ever will Surpass the achievement of a Woman when she becomes a Mother.

When did you last write to your Mother? If she has gone from you, how often do you think of her? Do you realize that all you are or ever hope to be, started away back there when your Mother, her whole being pulsating with Pride, held you tight, and with eyes lustred and watered with Love, watched your very Breath, and kept pace, over the hours, with your faintest Heart Throbs? Think of how, all through those days she wrapped you in her Unselfishness and her Sacrifices.

The measure of your Success will be the degree of Honor you pay to your Mother and to Motherhood.

How many indelicate stories would you tell if your Mother could always be present? How many mean and unjust affairs would you bring to pass if you had the eyes of your Mother looking on? Never mind about the "Apron Strings." There always comes a time when there are no "Apron Strings" to be tied to. And then you will long for them to come back.

If ever Failure begins to press; if ever Friends begin to fade away; if ever the grand figure of your Will shall begin to bow its Power—do this—think of your Mother and live up to her ideals of you.

Kiss your Mother as you go into the fight of this day. And at its close fill her furrowed forehead with your Smiles. Ease her Cares. Write to her though business go to Smash. Go and see her often though it takes you across the Globe. And let her Memory Guide and Inspire you as once you Guided and Inspired her Faith.

THE EVENING CHIT-CHAT

By RUTH CAMERON

As I was walking across a very familiar bit of country the other day, a muddy sidewalk forced me to climb up on a high banking and walk along there for a bit. It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. As I looked out from my new eminence across the familiar piece of territory and the tiny lake which I was skirting, I was struck with its beauty.

I have taken this walk many times, and the landscape has become so familiar to me that I had forgotten how pretty it was. A lighthouse keeper, who had to sleep in a room in which a bell, connected with the light, rang every thirty seconds, told me he had become so accustomed to it that he was not conscious of hearing it at all. Even so this accustomed scene scarcely made any impression upon my eye.

But from my new point of view, all was changed. The familiar scene took on entirely new value. A singularly perfect tree which stands by the edge of the water was revealed to me in all its symmetry. I realized that the curve of the little hill beyond the tiny lake was very beautiful. I saw the reflection of an arc of light in the water, looking like the golden gateway into water fairy land. Indeed I was so pleased by the new beauty of the old scene, that I stood quite still for a moment or two enjoying it.

And all this revelation came to me simply because I got a new angle on an old scene.

Surely you have had an experience like this at one time or another. Some accident of point of view has given you a new angle on a familiar scene, and you have been astonished at the vast change this little thing made. Emerson says that if a man will stoop over and look at the world from between his legs, he will find that the most familiar country looks quite different.

So a new angle creates a new world.

Now this is not true merely of the things that we see with our physical eyes. What about the world of our mental vision? Is it not true that a new angle or a new point of view will change that quite as completely?

We are lifted out of our routine by some powerful emotion, or we climb up on to the eminence of sympathy, or some sweet influence teaches us to look at life from a happier angle, and behold, we see a new world.

Perhaps you are not getting the best angle on your life.

Try another one.

NEW DWELLING BURNED

G. R. Richardson Was to Have Moved Into House in Moss Street To-day.

The almost finished dwelling house erected by G. R. Richardson at 932 Moss street, was badly damaged by a fire which broke out in the basement last Saturday night. The loss is estimated at $500, which is more than covered by insurance. The quenching of the fire was no mean task as smoke was coming from all the upper windows by the time the department was notified. Mr. Richardson was to have moved in next week.

Visitor Speaks of Japanese Criticism of American Alien Legislation

ANOTHER REVOLUTION IN CHINA PROBABLE

Doubtful Whether President Yuan Shih Kai Will Maintain Position

If the Japanese government should be driven into war with the United States over anti-alien legislation, it would be the result of pressure from the populace. Such is the opinion of Captain Arthur T. Dawes, late of the Indian army, who arrived on the Seattle Maru yesterday. The captain has been until recently engaged in instructional work in some of the interior prefectures of the island empire, and he found an amazing ignorance among otherwise well-informed men about the power and capacity of other countries. The success in the war with Russia has apparently convinced the Japanese that they are invincible, and they talk of war quite cheerfully. The leaders, however, realise that they have not the money to make any effective stand, and are devoting themselves to building up the industrial interests of the country in order to meet an emergency when it arises. Another thing which the captain says must militate against an attack is the obsolete character of many of the naval ships, there being only a few modern ones fit to start an assault. While the army is efficient, for an island empire to lack the opportunity to plan effective naval assistance would be fatal in a great war.

The captain pointed out that the possibilities of war are much more probable in China than Japan. After a careful study of the conditions in the republic, he believes that another revolution is inevitable. He acted as an army instructor at Wu-Chang during the revolution, and says that he would sooner train a number of brigands than introduce the material he had into the ways of soldiering. The troops are unpaid and may break out again at any time. The general impression is that President Yuan Shih Kai will not hold his position and there will be a change in the presidency.

The country between Peking and Nanking is seething with discontent, and the upshot may be another revolution at any time. Attempts have been made to organize a Manchu demonstration on several occasions, but up to the present time without effect. As a result of the condition of the country, the trade with the interior from the treaty ports is seriously hampered, and many of the business houses are crippled in disposing of their stocks.

The republic badly needs money to finance undertakings which will employ labor, and develop the natural resources of the country.

THE PASSING SHOW

"Always leave them laughing when you say good-bye" is the motto of Della Clarke, the author and playwright, whose latest comedy success, "Introduce Me," will be seen at the Victoria theatre on Wednesday, May 21. Give the people a bright, wholesome and happy-hearted play, and they will be your best advertisement, is the way this young author puts it.

"Find the audience that has left a theatre after going through an evening of troublesome seriousness or mawkish sentiment that is employed to create sympathy for some soiled heroine," she said, "and I will show you an audience that will not lose its breath hurrying to see that same play the next season. The people want to be made happy and be entertained."

Majestic Theatre.

An exceptionally choice programme will be shown to-day and Tuesday, "A Change of Administration" is an elaborate picture production, entwining a timely treatise on "The Patronage Evil. A glimpse of life in Washington, D. C. The experiences of many that hold government positions. "When the Right Man Comes Along." A woman broker apes mannish ways until the "right man comes along," and then because he will not pay attention to her, she buys a cascade of lace and a new hat he proposes. "School of Gymnastics," French soldiers show their prowess in military gymnastics. "The Cuttlefish," a study. "The Man Higher Up," Bunnygraph comedy.

VICTORIA DEALERS ARE TURNED DOWN

Fittings for Post Office Purchased in Vancouver Instead of Being Bought Here

PROTEST TO OTTAWA LIKELY TO BE MADE

Resentment Felt by Local Merchants and Board of Trade as Slight to City

Much dissatisfaction is being manifested among Victoria manufacturers of woodwork at the action of the federal government in going out of the city for the material for the changes which are in progress in the post office.

In fact, so strongly do some makers who happen to be Conservative in politics feel about it that there is likely to be something said in the meetings of the Conservative Association and the Beaver Club as to this matter, and the city member will have to explain why he did not see that the purchase of these fittings was made in Victoria.

It is pointed out that the Vancouver people would never stand for the purchase of any material intended for use in the public buildings of that city anywhere else if they could be obtained there, and it is being asked why Mr. Barnard is not as wide awake in such matters as the citizens of Vancouver.

The fittings which have been imported here from the neighbor city are all of a type that could be had here of just as good quality—or better—and merchants who could have supplied them are naturally up in arms over the slight implied in the department of public works going to Vancouver for them.

It is all the more galling to them in that this island is the centre of the timber supplies of the province, and that while its mills may not be as many as there are on the mainland, the quality of the product is at least a shade superior to what is turned out on the other side of the gulf.

At the present time the board of trade is endeavoring to formulate plans for the encouragement of new industries here, and the enlarging of the activities of those in existence. Members of the board who have expressed an opinion on this purchase by the public works department are decidedly annoyed by an act that goes directly against their efforts. At the very time, they say, that they are trying to extend the industrial life of the city, the government comes along and assists a rival city by purchasing there material which might better have been bought in the place where it was to be utilized.

It is intimated that at the next meeting of the manufactures committee of the board, which is dealing with the question, this incident will be mentioned, and it would not be surprising if a formal protest were forwarded to Ottawa and to the city member.

Not only in wood fittings, but in the other materials, this city can furnish just as fine work as can any other, and in this regard hardware and glass dealers are behind the lumbermen in their complaints against the federal authorities.

THE ELECTRIC VIBRATOR

IT HAS GREAT CURATIVE POWERS

ELECTRIC VIBRATION stops pain and CURES many ailments because it stimulates the circulation to the part of the body that is vibrated or exercised.

CONSTIPATION is caused by congestion and muscular weakness of the large intestines. Drugs only temporarily relieve the congestion, but increase the muscular weakness.

INDIGESTION is wonderfully benefited by VIBRATION. Weakness of the stomach muscles or lack of blood prevents digestion. The ELECTRIC VIBRATOR strengthens the former and circulates the latter.

BIRTHDAY CALENDAR

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

A systematic a ngement of all your affairs, especially those concerning health and wealth, will surely gain you a great advantage toward the end of the year. You are warned against wasting time in purposeless discussions.

Those born to-day will be intelligent and energetic and generally fortunate. Their danger will be from growing up under narrow, bigoted surroundings, instead of the broad, scientifically correct training which will best develop their cha acter and powers.

TO-DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

The Breton seaport of St. Malo is particularly interesting to Canadians because of its connection with Jacques Cartier. In April, 1534, he had set out from the old, grey town to seek a western way to Asia; and thither, in less than five months, he had returned, bringing with him, as proof positive that he had reached one of the strange countries, two young savages. He had brought also a good report of the land, which, he said, was "hotter than the country of Spain," and "the fairest that can possibly be found." The next year he prepared to sail again, and, despite opposition from some rival traders of St. Malo, three vessels, the largest of not more than one hundred and twenty tons, were equipped and laden; and several gentlemen of good family joined the hardy sailor's little company. Three days before their departure, Cartier and his crew attended a solemn service in the cathedral, confessing their sins and receiving a parting benediction from the bishop; and at last, on this date, May 19, 1535—the little fleet set sail—to penetrate, by the mighty St. Lawrence, deep into the heart of North America, where never European had been before.

• • •

Sir William Phipps and his squadron arrived off Port Royal, N. S., 223 years ago to-day, and speedily captured that town. The weak fort was surrendered without resistance, and the entire seacoast from Port Royal to the northeast settlements was taken possession of by Sir William. The Port Royal expedition, consisting of eight small ships and about 800 men, was undertaken by the general court of Massachusetts as a means of reprisal against the French. The Indians had taken the fort at Pemaquid, and French privateers were infesting the coasts of New England. Sir William and his fleet soon returned to Boston, with spoils covering the cost of the whole expedition. Shortly afterwards New England and New York united in an expedition against Canada, and Sir William Phipps was placed in command of the sea forces, but the project was a total failure. Acadie continued to be a French possion for twenty years after the raid of Phipps and his Boston men. In 1710 Col. Nicholson, with English ships and colonial soldiers, captured Port Royal and overran the province.

• • •

On this date, in 1731, Verendre set out on his western exploring tour, in the course of which he visited what is now Manitoba.

• • •

Sixty-six years ago to-day the brig Carrick was wrecked by a gale in the St. Lawrence, and 170 immigrants were drowned.

• • •

Gabriel Dumont, chief lieutenant of Riel in the 1885 rebellion, died seven years ago to-day.

VICTORIA DRUGGIST DESERVES PRAISE

Hall & Co., corner Yates and Douglas street, deserve praise from Victoria people for introducing here the simple buckthorn bark and glycerine mixture, known as Adler-i-ka. This simple German remedy first became famous by curing appendicitis and it has now been discovered that JUST A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. It's quick action is a big surprise to people.

A man entered the bar parlor of a country inn on a very cold day. A group of loungers were huddled about the fire, and the stranger could not get near it. "Got any oysters?" he asked the landlord, and receiving an affirmative reply said: "Take a dozen out to my horse." All hands crowded to the door to see the horse eat oysters, and the stranger secured the most comfortable seat. The landlord returned soon, and said the horse refused to eat the shell-fish. "Well, give 'em to me, then," said the artful visitor, in his warm corner.

BUSINESS IS GOOD

Our average sales of lots recently have not exceeded more than one lot for each working day which includes subdivided acreage. We would do much better if those who have money would think of the good things that have recently fallen our way and act accordingly. The following are a few that have dropped.

1. The largest Dry Dock in the world for Esquimalt.
2. The largest Breakwater on the Pacific Coast for Victoria.
3. The Songhees Reserve settlement and Union Depot.
4. The Ferry systems and railway construction with Victoria.
5. The B. C. Electric Railway from Victoria to Deep Cove.
6. The large structures being built and being arranged for, such as the B. C. Permanent Building, Keith-Wilson block, Weller Bros. block, Belmont block, the Elliott block, Hudson Bay Co. block, G. T. Hotel, etc., and our building permits.

If you are convinced that it is a good time to buy before the next movement which is about due, please call and see us, and if not, then call for further proof and inspect our bargain counter.

Natural History Society Investigates Geological Formation of Victoria's Environs.

There was an excellent attendance of members of the Natural History Society and friends at the outing held on Gonzales Hill on Saturday afternoon, the party assembling at 2.30 near the Dominion Wireless Station, where Napier Denison explained the plans of the new observatory which it is the purpose of the government to erect there shortly. Mr. Sutton afterwards conducted the party around the hill, pointing out the more outstanding features in its geological formation, and calling attention to the traces of glacial action. Messrs. A. E. Wallace and J. R. Anderson gave short discursions into botany and entymology, and the outing concluded with a delightful teaparty at the residence of Mr. Tilly on the north side of the hill. Mr. Gosnell will speak at to-night's meeting of the society on the early history of British Columbia.

BOTH SIDES BUILD HEREWARD BRIDGE

Railway Commission Decides City of Victoria Shall Pay Two-Thirds

RAILWAY CONTENDED NO HIGHWAY EXISTED

Vancouver, May 19.—At the railway commission meeting the case taken up this morning was the application of the municipal council of the city of Victoria for an order directing the Esquimalt & Nanaimo railway to construct and install a steel girder bridge over Hereward Road in the city of Victoria, to replace the existing trestle bridge at that point.

J. E. McMullen, appearing on behalf of the E. & N., contended that there was no such highway existent as Hereward Road, and that it was only a farm crossing on the railway. On the other hand, the city of Victoria claimed that it was a public highway, and that as the trestle bridge at that point is in a dangerous condition, and has to be replaced, that it should be replaced with a steel structure. It was pointed out that although only intended as a farm crossing, the public had been using it as a highway since 1890.

Mr. Drayton: "There have been no steps taken to stop its use as a public highway since 1891?"

Mr. McMullen: "No, but we can stop it now if we like."

Mr. Drayton: "I don't think you can. It has been used for the past twenty years as a highway. The public, I admit, have no rights to the road or lands except by user, but you must strengthen the structure anyway, so you should bear part of the cost of this new bridge. Under these circumstances the railway company will pay one-third of the whole, and the municipality two-thirds. The government will make a contribution out of its funds for extinguishing dangerous crossings to the extent of 20 per cent, not to exceed $5,000."

The city was ordered to draw plans and submit them to the railway company for approval. In the event of any dispute the railway company will draw alternate plans, and if an agreement cannot then be reached it will be left to the engineer of the commission to decide. The work is to be done within six months.

INDIAN COMMISSION ORGANIZED TO-DAY

Took Oath Before Judge Morrison This Morning; Met Sir Richard McBride

INFORMAL DISCUSSION ON SCOPE OF INQUIRY

Powers Vested in Commission by the Agreement Between the Two Governments

"We, the commissioners within named, do each for himself swear that he will well and truly and impartially perform the duties and exercise the powers and authorities granted and conferred by the within commission to the best of his understanding and ability."

E. W. WETMORE.
N. W. WHITE.
J. A. J. McKENNA.
J. P. SHAW.
D. H. McDOWELL.

The above is the wording of the oath taken by the members of the Indian commission, which organized this morning. The oath was taken before Judge Morrison of the Supreme Court at the court house, and afterwards the members adjourned to the parliament buildings, where the executive chamber was placed at their disposal for a short meeting. Here also they met Sir Richard McBride, and discussed with him some of the phases of the commission's duties. It was found impossible to acquire accommodation in the parliament buildings for the commission's headquarters, therefore the secretary, J. G. H. Bergeron, was instructed to obtain offices somewhere in the city. Another meeting, this time of a private nature, was called at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when the premier and the minister of lands were in attendance.

Discussed Informally.

The exact nature of the commission was the theme which was discussed more or less informally this morning, and the terms of the agreement, which was originally concluded on September 24 last between Sir Richard McBride acting for the province and J. A. J. McKenna, specially representing the Dominion. By this agreement the acts and proceedings of the commission shall be subject to the approval of the two interested governments, who shall take them up with a view to giving effect as far as reasonably possible to the findings and recommendations of the commission.

The main power of the commission, as set forth in the duly attested document, is that they may adjust the acreage of Indian reserves in British Columbia within certain limits. For example, at such places as the commissioners are satisfied that more land is included in any particular reserve than is reasonably required for the use of the Indians of that tribe or locality, the reserve shall, with the consent of the Indians, as required by the Indian Act, be reduced to such acreage as the commissioners think reasonably sufficient for the purposes of such Indians. On the other hand, at any place at which the commissioners determine that an insufficient quantity of land has been set aside for the use of the Indians of that locality, the commissioners shall fix the quantity that ought to be added. They may also set aside lands for Indians for whom land has not already been reserved.

Will Sit Some Time.

This is, in the main, a broad outline of the work of the Indian commission, and as the matters they are required to look into are somewhat comprehensive in their scope, it is expected that their work will last for some considerable time. It is enacted that the province shall take steps to reserve legally the additional lands which the commission shall apportion to any body of Indians in pursuance of their powers, and the lands which the commissioners determine are not necessary will be subdivided and sold by the province at public auction. The net proceeds of such sale will be divided between the province and the Dominion. All expenses incurred by the commission will also be defrayed equally by the two governments.

SIX WERE STRANDED ON ROCKS ALL NIGHT

Rowed to Chatham Island and Gale Prevented Return; Rescued After 24 Hours

The friends of G. A. Ray, of 1128 Vancouver street, and of J. J. Jessop, of 115 Yates street, had a worried time this morning when it was discovered that Mr. and Mrs. Ray with their two children and Mr. and Mrs. Jessop had not returned from a boating party upon which they embarked early Sunday forenoon. Shortly before 12 o'clock to-day, however, the party was discovered stranded by the gale on Chatham Island and a launch speedily brought them to shore.

The party hired a rowboat at Oak Bay yesterday morning about 9.30 and went out to Chatham Island, which is in the straits about half way between Oak Bay and San Juan Island. It is about a five-mile pull. Later in the day a stiff breeze came up and made it impossible to venture out in a craft such as the one they had, and it became necessary to camp for the night. A big fire was built on the rocks and the adults spent the night trying to keep the children warm. Nobody slept.

The police were notified this morning that the party was missing, and investigations were made by Chief Handley, of Oak Bay. Some boatmen said they had seen the fire on Chatham Island and a launch put out about 11 o'clock. All six people were found very sleepy and very cold, but otherwise none the worse for the outing.

PUT OUT OF BUSINESS

Police Act Promptly in Case Discovered in James Bay.

Police vigilance checked at attempt to establish a disorderly house on Menzies street within a week of the time the inmates settled there.

On Saturday the authorities considered they had sufficient evidence to make a raid, and about half-past eleven Detective Sergeant O'Leary, with Detectives Heather, Edens and Macdonald, secured entry to the house, where they found two women and four men alleged to be frequenters. About a hundredweight of empty bottles—champagne, whiskey and beer—were brought to the station with the six prisoners. The women were allowed out again on $150 bail and the men on $50.

In police court this morning the women made default, their bail was estreated and a bench warrant issued. The women had given their names as F. Harron and J. Bancroft, and described themselves as married women.

Two of the men defaulted and their bail was estreated. The other two appeared in court and pleaded not guilty. One swore that he had gone to the house to collect a bill for delicatessen he had delivered during the week. The other a friend who was with him, told the same story, but both admitted that although, according to their own story, they had been in the house for a quarter of an hour no request for the payment of the bill was made. The police hinted that the men were out as to the passage of time, and that they were in the house from nine o'clock. When the house was entered evidences of drinking were found but the two men heard to-day swore they did not pay for any liquor.

Magistrate Jay considered there was a reasonable doubt, to the benefit of which the accused were entitled, and he dismissed the cases.

ST. SAVIOUR'S HOLDS ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

Celebrates Twenty-Fifth Year of Its Organization; Rural Dean Preaches

Yesterday, Trinity Sunday, St. Saviour's church, Victoria West, celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary, and the twenty-second anniversary of its consecration. The church was packed for both morning and evening services, Rev. Baugh Allan, the rural dean, preaching in the morning, and the rector, Rev. Robert Connell, in the evening. The collections, which took the form of a special thankoffering, were very gratifying as being a memorial to the work accomplished in the past and an expression of the desire of the congregation to see the work go forward in the future.

The rural dean's sermon in the morning was of a retrospective nature.

In the evening the rector preached. Instead of a text he took as his subject "The Purpose of Christ." This, he said, showed to be threefold. Fruit, the proclamation of the Gospel, the evangelization of the world, the calling of men to allegiance to Christ; those who accepted the call and entered the ecclesia still further continuing the work of holding forth the word of life. The Laymen's Missionary Movement had made this special watchward, "The Evangelization of the World in This Generation." Beyond this evangelization, which was not necessarily conversion or acceptance of the call, lay the return of the Master.

The second part of the church's purpose was the training of its members in holiness, godliness, character. All were sharers of the same spirit in differing gifts which were not for personal aggrandizement but for the general good. The importance of home religious education as well as of the Sunday school could not be overestimated. If the church was not training itself in character its work must be a failure.

Then, too, the third part of the church's work was its influence on the world about. This was the necessary expression of the life within it. No "social gospel" could be a substitute for the real gospel, but the Christian as a citizen must rise to his responsibilities and opportunities as such. The church should not be on the defensive, but rather an aggressive force sending out its healthy invigorating influence on every side. Working along these lines and not seeking popularity or financial power the church must be a success.

REVISE VOTERS' LISTS.

Work Begun This Morning Will Consume Some Time.

The half-yearly revision of the voters' lists for the electoral districts of Victoria City and Esquimalt began this morning before Harvey Combe, registrar of voters for the two districts. The work will take a considerable time on this occasion, due to the fact that entirely new lists have to be made up. There are close on three hundred objections to names on the Esquimalt list to be heard by the registrar, but the city list will give no trouble on that score. The Esquimalt objections are filed by the Conservative association there.

PUTS UP $30,000 HOUSE

F. Nation, English Financier, to Take Up Residence in Victoria.

The taking out of a permit this morning for a thirty thousand dollar dwelling house to be built in Rockland avenue indicates that F. Nation, the prominent English financier and single taxer who has been visiting in Victoria for some weeks has decided to take up residence in this city. The plans filed with the city authorities show that the structure is to be a most beautiful little place, the large cost obviously being caused by the expensiveness of the character of the house rather than by the size. The house is to be built principally of stone and cement and will be situated in Rockland avenue on the Fairfield estate.

That fear will promote disease has been abundantly proved during outbreaks of epidemics. There are many people of both sexes who never hear of a disease without fancying they have it. The illness of a Royal or distinguished sufferer, the progress of which is recorded day by day in the newspapers, always leads to an increase in the number of persons treated for the same complaints.

HANSEN THREATENS ARTHUR BOURCHIER

American Theatrical Manager Appears in Bow Street Police Court

London, May 19.—J. Walter Hansen, the American theatrical manager, was brought up at the Bow Street police court to-day charged with threatening Arthur Bourchier, English actor-manager, with violence. His case was continued until Friday. The attorney for the prosecution described Mr. Hansen as a man of very violent character. The police testified that they had to throw him to the ground to search him. Detective Inspector Carlin said he thought Mr. Hansen was mad.

If the prison doctor reports favorably on the state of the prisoner's mind, Mr. Hansen will be released on Friday on a bond of $5,000 binding him to keep the peace. The quarrel between the two men arose over the methods of production of a play in a London theatre.

ACTION INFUSED IN WALL STREET TRADING

Rock Island Issues Subject to Pressure but Has Reaction Later

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

New York, May 19.—There was better action than has been seen for some time for the general list to-day, and advances were well distributed. Further pressure in Rock Island issues was seen in the earlier part of the session, but later the stock reacted to a noticeable extent. Sales of copper metal reported to have been made at the 16c level was stimulating in effect on copper issues and helped to impart improved feeling throughout the session.

Coronation, Lucky Jim, McGillivray, Stewart Land and Glacier Are Leaders

Victoria, May 19.—Coronation, Lucky Jim, McGillivray and Stewart Land were stronger on the exchange to-day and demand was conspicuous in the former issue. Glacier Creek continued the foremost in interest among the Portland Canal mining issues. Most of the list were firm and pressure was not seen throughout.

STRONGER WHEAT ON PERFECT CONDITIONS

Shorts Buying is Only Logical Reason for Advanced Price at Winnipeg

Winnipeg, May 19.—Wheat was a little stronger both in Europe and America. There seems no logical reason for an advance except that shorts are buying. Crop conditions in the United States continue ideal. Warmer weather to stimulate growth would be welcome in Western Canada. Offerings are heavy, but cash and export trade are quiet.

Oats and flax were a little more active and firmer. Receipts were heavy, being 1,102 cars inspected and 525 in sight.

MAY CONTRACTS ARE CONGESTED IN PIT

Bradstreet's Clearances of Wheat and Flour Over Seven Million Bushels

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

Chicago, May 19.—Feature in the entire grain trade of Chicago to-day was the somewhat congested May contracts. It was this feeling which induced considerable covering by shorts in the later months in the entire grain list. In wheat perhaps the claims of cash and export sales made at the close recently had something to do with a check in the selling pressure. A leader in the cash wheat trade was a buyer of May at the outset, and this had some pit influence. Brokers were inclined to explain the stronger tone as due to recent very bearish crop news. Bradstreet's gave export clearances of wheat and flour very large, at a little over 7,000,000 bushels. No doubt the bulk of this business is in the shape of Canadian wheat.

CHICAGO LECTURER ADVOCATES CHANGES

John Z. White Expounds Principles of Commission Form of Government

At the Victoria theatre Saturday night John Z. White, of Chicago, gave an address on the "Commission Form of Government." Those on the platform with the speaker and chairman were his worship the mayor and Aldermen Gleason, McCandless, Dilworth, Cuthbert and Meston, with Hon. Dr. Young presiding.

The speaker, introduced by the chairman, who expressed his pleasure at being asked to preside at the meeting, emphasized throughout his lecture the importance of organizing public business along the same lines as private business, viz., by diminishing the number of heads, and concentrating the responsibility for civic government in the hands of a few. The public should not forget, moreover, that the men in office were servants of the people. Of course before election day no one would dispute this. The candidates for office posed then as the servants; the people were their employers. The day before election the candidates solicited their electors; the day after election the electors solicited them. The object of the commission form of government was to make the former supposition a common, every-day reality; that is, to elect a few men, three, five or seven, who would be given authority to take care of the public concern.

Confused by Numbers.

Chicago, for instance, had seventy aldermen, and in addition to them a whole string of other public officials. In St. Louis the conducting of the city's business was even more complicated. The average men became confused by such a multiplicity of officials, and at election time lost sight of the man's capacity for holding office. The number should be reduced, and the responsibility vested in a few capable men. In doing this it was true that there would be a return to a type of monarchical government, but if it made for efficiency, so much the better. If a man went on an ocean voyage he would not like the control of the ship to be vested in dozens of men. There must be a head master. He might carry the picture still further by asking what sort of a skipper they would like to have in a storm at sea. So long as he could navigate well no one would care a rap for his morality. It was efficiency they wanted in public officials; not piety.

"Under the present system," said the speaker, "you appoint a group of public men to conduct your municipal affairs for two or four years, and during that time, unless they actually violate the criminal law, you cannot remove them from office, no matter how incapable they are. Human nature is notoriously weak, and every time you elect a public official you are placing a man in temptation's way; pilfering has gone so far that in places where the people are awake to the danger they have placed a limit on the amount to which any public concern can go into debt."

All government should be a government of law and not of men, said Mr. White; adding that the only law since the old Roman law which made for the permanency and integrity of human society was that known as the British common law.

Modern Institutions

Mr. White then pointed out the purpose of the initiative, the referendum and the recall instituted under the commission system of government, explaining that the public as the master should be able to step in and do for itself what the agent was not doing. The power which elected a man into office ought also to be empowered to elect that man out of office. Otherwise people could not flatter themselves that they were self-governed.

The speaker then cited a number of authentic instances of the application of the referendum and recall in cities of the United States, where municipal government hitherto had been a farcical misrepresentation of the name. One city had appointed a metaphysician as commissioner of police. The appointment had been inappropriate; but events transpired which showed the singular mettle of the man, who eventually, through a threat of resignation, forced the other members of the city council to oust an unscrupulous member from office.

Des Moines, Iowa, had adopted the referendum and recall with singularly beneficial results to the city's sanitary and moral welfare. One of the mistakes of the system there, however, was that the people elected the five councilmen to office, without specifying what office. The five councilmen then gathered together and decided among themselves what office each should hold. The people ought to know whom they wished for a certain office and elect him to that office because he had certain qualifications which recommended him for that work.

Freedom in Change.

In conclusion, Mr. White recommended his hearers to read Roberts' Rules of Order and Cushing's Manual if they wished to learn the key of liberty and good government. The history of the English, he reminded his audience, had been made up of episodes connected with their resistance to tyranny. British freedom (voice interrupting, "Where is it?") exists to-day in the degree that the people had got rid of forms of law that a previous generation had taught its children to respect.

At the close of his address the speaker was thanked by the mayor and chairman for his able exposition of the subject, this being endorsed by the hearty applause of the audience.

AUTOMOBILISTS WILL SUPPORT CITY BY-LAW

Victoria Automobile Association Endorses Proposal at Sooke Harbor Luncheon

The run taken by the Victoria Automobile Association last Saturday afternoon to the Sooke Harbor hotel proved a most successful event, more than 60 members and ladies participating in the drive. Seventeen cars left Victoria during the course of the morning for the appointed rendezvous.

The weather and roads were excellent, and the majority of the cars made quick time from the city. After partaking of the bountiful luncheon provided by C. Barbour at the comfortable new hotel at Sooke harbor, at which the members were joined by a number of the leading residents of the locality, speeches were given by the chairman, John A. Turner, who presided in the absence of the president and vice-presidents—Alderman Cuthbert, Harry Pooley, William Blakemore, J. A. Taylor and C. A. Forsythe.

It was decided by unanimous consent of the meeting that the city by-law for the regulation of cut outs, etc., should be supported; the action of the meeting being endorsed by the hearty applause of all present. A number of photographs of the group of lunchers and of the cars were taken before the gathering disbanded to take their several ways homeward.

RAN DOWN BARONET

Sir Saville Crossley Not Seriously Injured by Mrs. F. S. Barnard's Electric Motor.

Sir Saville Crossley, Bart., an English gentleman in Victoria en route from the Orient to the Old Country, met with a slight accident Saturday night when an electric motor car, driven by Mrs. F. S. Barnard and containing Mr. Barnard and Dr. Fagan, rounded the corner of Gordon street and Humboldt street and struck him, knocking him down. Sir Saville was lifted into the car by the two men and taken to his room at the Empress hotel where Dr. Robertson declared that his injuries were of a minor nature. It is claimed that the electric was proceeding at a slow pace and that Sir Saville did not hear it approaching.

LONG CANOE TRIP.

Arthur D. Simpson and Forest Clark, two San Diego residents, will call here on their way north from Seattle in an 18-foot canvas canoe in which they propose to make an excursion of 2,500 miles to Alaska. One pair of paddles will be used to propel the craft, which will be fitted with a canvas cover to shed breaking seas, after the fashion of an Eskimo kyak. Simpson and Clark expect to reach Skagway, 1,000 miles from Seattle, in three months' time. The canoe and outfit will be portaged over the trail made famous in the days of '98. Water travel will be resumed at Bennett, where the canoe will be launched in the Yukon. They hope to cover the distance from Bennett to Nome in about six weeks, allowing time for a visit to the gold diggings of the Klondike as well as stops at the Indian fishing villages en route. From Nome the adventurers will probably go by steamship to Seattle.

PILGRIMAGE RECEIVED.

Rome, May 19.—An American pilgrimage of fifty persons conducted by the Right Rev. John Grimes, bishop of Syracuse, N. Y., was received this morning by Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state. Bishop Grimes was afterward received in private audience by Pope Pius. He reported that he found the pope looking well, in cheerful spirits and alert.

Harms Students More Than Anyone Else

The Chief of the Presbyterian Hospital in N. Y., Dr. Fisher, tells one very easy way to avoid some physical ills.

His comments on

TEA and COFFEE

are most interesting (see letter in southeast corner).

If the subject appeals to you, try leaving off tea and coffee entirely, use Instant Postum and carefully note, day by day, the return to health and strength.

A level teaspoonful of Instant Postum in an ordinary cup of hot water dissolves instantly and makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more, and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular (must be boiled).

Instant Postum doesn't require boiling, but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in cup of hot water.

SPEAKS OUT

Dr. C. Irving Fisher, for a quarter century at the head of New York's great Presbyterian Hospital, says in the New York Times of March 23, 1913:

"Coffee poisoning is becoming constantly more common in this country, especially among students, whom it harms more than it would harm almost anybody else.

"Coffee intoxication does not lead to wife beating, but its physiological effects upon some of its victims are almost as bad as those of alcoholic poisoning.

"We continually find at the various clinics signs of the harm done by the excessive use of tea and coffee among children.

"Surely this is quite preventable.

"Children not infrequently appear whose nervous and digestive systems have been wrecked by these two beverages."
